

On Thursday, February 26 at the regular Lions Club meeting at Trinity Church, Don Hewson Sr. had the pleasure of presenting two $300.00 cheques on behalf of the club to Dr. S. R. Frankling of South Peel Hospital and Dr. D. H. Dickson of Peel Memorial Hospital, the money to be used for work in the Eye Clinic of the respective hospitals.

Mrs. A. Pells is new J.A. leader

The old parish hall, Trinity Church was the scene of the first open executive meeting of the Trinity Church A.C.W. The president, Mrs. Peg Thomas presided over a group of more than 20 A.C.W. executive and members as she outlined the many items of business.

Plans are progressing well for Arctic Day, Sunday, April 20. The parish hall will be open from 2 p.m. on for the exhibit of Mrs. D. B. Marsh's paintings of the Arctic, as well as a display of Eskimo art. Films of Eskimo life will be shown during the day.

The World Day of Prayer will be held on Friday, March 7 at 7.30 p.m. at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Matthews, Past President of the National C.W.L. Mrs. Elya Chestnut and Mrs. Norah Busby will take part in the service as representatives of the A.C.W.

John Fisher, Campaign Chairman of Peel County United Appeal, will speak to the April general meeting. Mr. Fisher is particularly interested in mental health and will explore the topic of entertainment programs in nursing homes, such as those we have here in Streetsville. A parish-wide "Quiet Day" will be held on March 15. All men, women and children are invited. Please call the parish office by March 5 if you plan to attend.

Mrs. Alice Pells is the new Junior Auxiliary leader. The girls meet every Thursday at 4 p.m. at Trinity Church. Mrs. Muriel Walker will convene the A.C.W. Bazaar again in 1969.

Prayer Partner Convenor Mrs. C. Edwards notified the meeting of a Prayer Partner Conference at Christ Church, Deer Park, on Monday, March 17. The Conference begins with Holy Communion at 10 a.m.

The business meeting ended with refreshments being served. A Lenten Dialogue was read by Mrs. Jean Lasby, Mrs. Lorraine Mason and Mrs. Joan Laurie. Following a discussion period led by Mrs. Elya Chestnut, the meeting was adjourned.

Council Votes For Annexation Try

"The Mouse that roared" according to Councillor Earl MacLean, refers to Streetsville's intention to annex part of Mississauga and part of Oakville according to the Boundary Survey.

Monday night Council agreed to annex the said portions of lands by giving two readings to a by-law which will be sent to Municipal Affairs Minister Darcy McKeough. Although by-laws are sent to the O.M.B. this one goes directly to Mr. McKeough since he has stopped all land annexations pending his proposals on Regional government.

Councillor Murray Bell voted against the by-law; the Mayor and Deputy-Reeve Arch were absent the other members of Council voted approval.

Previously, the Town had sent a letter informing Mr. McKeough of their wishes to proceed with plans according to the Boundary Study. His reply was "thank you; it is being referred to a committee." Comments from Council went something like this: "Yes, referred to the Indian Affairs Committee." "It's more like we're getting the deep freeze from up north -- most likely it's gone to the Eskimo affairs."

After the by-law to expropriate was read with all its northerly, westerly, easterly, southerly directions, Councillor Appleton remarked "Now let Chic Murray figure that one out!" Mr. Murray is the Reeve of Mississauga.

Lions donate to eye clinics

On Thursday evening, February 27 at Trinity Hall the Streetsville Lions Club held their regular meeting. Because of President Bill Cove's illness, First Vice-President Bob Esrey chaired the assembly.

The first item on the agenda was Lion Don Hewson Sr. presenting Dr. S. R. Frankling of the South Peel Hospital and Dr. D. H. Dickson of Peel Memorial Hospital each with $300.00 cheques. This money will be used towards the purchase of new equipment for their respective Eye Clinics.

Making his official visit, Deputy District Governor Ron Sprang of the Erindale Lions Club spoke on desire and interest in Lionism. Deputy Governor Ron joined the Erindale Lions in 1959 and has had perfect attendance since. Four Lions from the sunny south attended the meeting with Lion Ron.

Institute plans bus trip

The February meeting of the Streetsville Women's Institute was held in the choir room of the United Church with 39 members present. Mrs. N. Cook, president, welcomed Mrs. Church as a new member. Mrs. W. Finley, assistant secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

The roll call was answered by naming an unusual word from the dictionary. Thank you notes were read from the Rotary Club thanking Mrs. N. Cook and Mrs. C. Brocklebank for addressing the Club on the history of the Institute. A thank you note was also read from the Library Board for cups and saucers donated for use in the kitchen of the library. Mrs. Langmaid spoke on Current Events.

The date of the bus trip arranged by Mrs. F. Dowling has been changed to March 26 and will be a tour of the courthouse in Brampton, shopping at Eaton's College Street store and then to Carleton theatre to see "Oliver".

The program - "A Trip to England and Scotland" proved a very interesting tour of England and Scotland through the use of slides and conducted by Mrs. M. Brocklebank. Lunch was served by Mrs. Hawn, Mrs. King, Mrs. Hartley Mrs. Devins, and Mrs. Andrews.

The next meeting will be March 13 in the United Church.

Rangers visit Town Council

Eleven lovely girls from the last Streetsville Land Rangers were in attendance at Monday night's council meeting with their captain Dianne Fisher.

As part of their pre-enrolment, the girls are learning about local government. Captain Fisher took the girls to the police station where finger printing and other police procedures were explained to them. They received a tour through the municipal building and attended part of the Council meeting.

Paper Drive

The Boy Scouts in Streetsville are holding a Paper Drive on SATURDAY, March 15.

Since this is the first day of the School Spring Vacation - if you are going away - will you please put out your tied, bundles of newspapers before leaving.

To discontinue Local Office

A letter from the Railway Transport Committee of the Canadian Transport Commission to Streetsville outlines their proposal to close several freight and ticket offices including Streetsville.

Council has decided to alert the major industries in town of this matter and indicate Council's support to any valid objections.

Developer Claims Project Commercial Help Locally

In the absence of Mayor Graham, Reeve Hazel McCallion chaired Monday night's Council meeting where a deputation from Don Mills Development Ltd. and Markborough Developments were heard by Council.

A. E. Diamond, president of Cadillac Developments spoke for the Erin Mills and Markborough Developments in conjunction with their future plans in and outside of Streetsville.

Council was informed by Mr. Diamond that Streetsville has been taken into account in their plans for development. He said Streetsville will be kept informed of their plans and said the town will be notified when they make their formal presentation to Mississauga late in April or early in May.

Mr. Diamond told Council the two developments will assist Streetsville commercially. He said he hoped the plans will satisfy Streetsville since, in their planning, the individuality of Streetsville was preserved.

He also indicated the plans in general are compatible with Streetsville's boundary study.

Open House At Vista

Open House will be held at Vista Heights Public School on Thursday, March 6 from 7.30 to 9.00 p.m.

The school will be open to visitors from 7.30 to 8.15 and a programme will be presented in the Auditorium from 8.15 to 9.00. All parents are invited to attend.

Protect against moisture

If moisture is a menace in your home, consider making interior walls more resistant with a special paint like a wall primer and sealer. Such a base will assist in preventing penetration of water vapor that is often in the air. Any decorative paint can then be applied on top, notes the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

DON'T GUESS

A primer or first coat of paint will cover approximately 450 square feet per gallon. The finish coat usually covers 550 square feet per gallon, says the Canadian Paint Manufacturers Association.

Let's talk about Regional Government

In view of all the recent talk about the advantages and disadvantages of regional government in Peel-Halton Community, shouldn't the average citizen become more knowledgeable about municipal government in general? Sheridan College thinks the answer to this question should be YES, and in line with its aim of serving the community, will offer a course on local government. Beginning on March 26 and continuing each Wednesday until April 30, two topics dealing with municipal government will be presented by experts each evening. The approach will be practical rather than theoretical and students will have plenty of opportunity to pose questions. For example

Nance Horwood, Warden of Peel County, will talk on Parliamentary Procedures in the Council Chamber and Dean Henderson, Town Manager of Mississauga will explain the formation and operation of Local Boards and Commissions. Other speakers will reveal the intricacies of Municipal Finance and Assessment.

If you are thinking of running for office, or working in a municipal office, or if you would just like to know more about what makes your local government tick, you should attend this course. The topics to be discussed include: 1. History of Local Government in Ontario. 2. Forms and Structure of Local Government in Ontario. 3. The Role of the Province in Local Government. 4. How the Municipal Corporation operates. 5. Functions and Special Services of the Municipality. 6. Local Boards and Commissions. 7. Municipal Assessment as the Base for the Real Property Tax.

8. Municipal Finance. 9. Parliamentary Procedure in the Council Chamber. 10. Community Planning. 11. Participation in your local Government. 12. Local Government in Ontario - Its Future and Yours. For further information contact the Director of Extension at Sheridan College.

Overseas student gets education by correspondence

Concentrating on homework is hard enough these days but when Gordon Hodgson, 18, dropped his books to go chasing after a Tarantula spider his mother really didn't mind. With five snakes in the house, three of them poisonous, plus a few chameleons, a spider here or there doesn't really matter.

His mother is not fond of snakes and tried to talk him into getting rid of a deadly Green Mamba. But now he has two. He ran over one with his motorcycle. It was only stunned so he added it to his collection.

Gordon, according to A. S. McCordle, head of the Fenelon Falls High School's science department, is one of the best students he has ever had. But he has never met him.

Gordon is in Liberia, West Africa, where his father C. G. Hodgson is a missionary with the Liberia Inland Mission. He is one of a few hundred overseas students receiving their education through correspondence courses offered by the Ontario Department of Education.

They are students whose parents are working overseas in external aid programs, in the diplomatic corps or as missionaries in various parts of the world. Mr. McCordle, one of several hundred teachers who mark for the courses, has been marking Gordon's papers for about a year and finds that he too is getting an education. With each lesson Gordon usually includes an excellently written, highly detailed account of life in West Africa. He vividly details the bird, insect and reptile life in which he is particularly interested.

Guided by only a flickering light, Gordon told of making his way across the mission compound to find a group of local schoolboys keeping well away from the huge spider as it clung to a wall. He captured it using a can and a piece of glass. He also told of how they store much of their food on a special table, the legs of which stand in cans of kerosene, to prevent ants from reaching the food. To date he has captured or examined 20 of the 43 snakes common to West Africa. He told Mr. McCordle that he has enjoyed his science course. "I have found some of the lessons rather long, but perhaps that is because there are so many outside interests here that draw my attention."

The family hope to return to Canada this spring. Gordon has received all but his Grade Six education through these correspondence courses. His Grade 6 was taken in Ontario while the family was on leave. School officials have found that such students have little difficulty returning to regular classroom life. Gordon hopes to enter Grade 12 this fall. While Gordon works at his studies in Africa and others are similarly engaged in other countries, about 45,000 students are enrolled in the same correspondence courses throughout Ontario.

Here the courses are primarily an adult education program. The average age of those enrolled in them is 23. They are people from all walks of life who want to improve their education but are unable to attend regular day-time or night school classes. The courses allow the students to work at their own pace and they are able to mix their subjects.

A student may, for example, take Grade 10 mathematics and at the same time take Grade 13 history. The program has been highly successful. In 1967, the last year students were required to write Grade 13 departmental examinations, 85% of the correspondence course students writing them were successful.

French immersion for teachers

A total immersion course in French for elementary and secondary school French teachers is one of 10 new summer courses planned by the Ontario Department of Education this year.

Included are courses in music, dance and science field study. The special French course will be held at Compton, Quebec from July 7 to August 8.

Those taking it must be prepared to use French exclusively from the moment they arrive on course. Classes, recreational and cultural programs will all be conducted in French.

The course is open to those qualified to teach in elementary or secondary schools of the Province who are now teaching French and to those who expect to be teaching French in the 1969-70 school year.

The program, to be offered at different achievement levels, will include classes in French conversation, methodology, culture, civilization and linguistics. Cost of the course is $200.

Lorne Park Rec. Assoc. continues

At a recent meeting at Lorne Park Secondary School, a group of interested residents offered to contribute their time to keep the Lorne Park Recreation from dissolving.

The Association will meet the 1st MONDAY of each month at 8:00 p.m. at Lorne Park Secondary School, to discuss and plan recreation programmes. If you are interested in helping this group to provide recreation opportunities to the residents of Lorne Park, or if you have any suggestions, please call Marlene Lindsay, 279-7600, Ext. 281.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE TOWN OF MISSISSAUGA

RE: STREET PARKING

On April 18, 1968, the Department of Transport for Ontario approved the Town's New Traffic By-law No. 7037.

One section therein, 25 (j), states that:

25. No person shall park any vehicle on any road

(j) for an unreasonable length of time having regard to traffic conditions, and in no case for a period longer than three hours.

You will please note that no signs need to be posted with this regulation and that such ordinance applies to every road within the Town. It was out of a need to control and regulate long term parking causing congestion that resulted in the introduction of this section of the by-law.

We trust that your co-operation in this matter will result in a more orderly and desirable community in which to live. Thank you.

Just how does the average local resident feel and how much does he know about the proposed Peel-Halton merger? As a public service, The REVIEW has compiled a questionnaire and requests that the readers fill in their comments and return it to us as soon as possible. We will tabulate the results and turn them over to the special committee who will be discussing the Regional Plans with other municipalities.

LETTERS

Dear Irene:

Your effort to seek the opinions of the people is highly appreciated and I would have reacted to your questionnaire gladly. However, I feel that a different type of reaction is in order.

Your article is an example of the type of nonsense we live with. Made up out of generalities, slogans and the sentimental touch at the end, it leaves the reader as uninformed as ever. Nobody with any sense would fill this 'opinion' out, so what you would end up with and might take seriously as gospel would be exactly the opposite.

How can anyone give an opinion when the news-media keep us so completely uninformed, especially the 'Review'.

Who cares whether John B. joins something and Mrs. L. likes the Capetown weather? Surely a merger like this has been discussed with pro's and con's by our councillors. Why don't you report these discussions and the stands that were taken by our representatives and their reasons? Or is this against the policy of letting the taxpayers know only how many cats and kids a man in public office has?

I am sorry to say that the only impression I have from your article is that the 'Review' is after advertising from the Towers and CTC store and that Mr. Speck is after a higher paid job. Who needs public transportation? You?

Affectionately,
WALTER

Dear Walter:

In reply to your "affectionate" letter dated February 2, may I say I am delighted at the response to date regarding my article on "Regional Government - What Is Your Opinion?"

Although the article may appear "general" to you, people are reading it in its entirety, and we are getting a good response to it, and to our questionnaire.

Insofar as the "sentimental approach" at the end of the article, we at The Review feel it is necessary to present the facts to the people, and we WANT and WE COME their opinions.

Our attitude in presenting information in this manner is not "sentimental" but rather, concern.

I suppose the dozens who have made the effort to reply may be "senseless" in YOUR opinion but I suggest that it takes less time to fill out a questionnaire than it does to compose a letter.

The purpose of any news media is to PROVIDE A SERVICE of communication, informing the public, and I feel qualified to give an opinion since I was present at the unveiling of Darcy McKeough's Peel-Halton proposal January 22 at Queen's Park, and since that time I have spoken to those people in Municipal politics who are, and will be, discussing this proposed merger. The results of these interviews are published in subsequent issues of The Review.

While you may think that our present mayor is only after a "higher paid job" you must admit that Robert Speck, for many years, has pioneered the growth of industry, and he has earned the respect of many who feel his abilities and performances as a leader in municipal politics have earned him this "promotion".

The Review is not promoting advertising from Towers and C.T.C. and why would you choose two commercial businesses whose preference is to advertising only in the major daily newspapers, and through house-to-house delivery?

Yes, I need public transportation for myself, and for my children, who one day soon, I hope, will be able to use public facilities such as Library, Huron Park and not have to be chauffeured.

Walter Dear: - you compose a pretty good letter. Have you ever thought of entering the writing profession? You imply you would do a much better job of reporting the facts - here's your chance!

Affectionately,
IRENE GABON.

TO PLAY IN ALL-ONT COLLEGE FINALS

Three Streetsville hockey players will be performing in the All-Ontario College finals this Friday and Saturday in Brampton. Ken Bond, Bruce Kalapaca and Jim Workman are three key players in the Sheridan College hockey team which competes in the championship tournament this weekend. Other colleges sor. One of the four is which made it to this yet to be eliminated - leaving four teams to go for the championship in College in Ottawa, Fan- Brampton.

Tri-County hockey roundup

With just about a month of hockey action remaining for the OMHA All Star Teams, the climaxes to a fine season for each club begin.

The Novle Thunderbirds begin their first series outside of Tri County this Friday when they travel to Paris for the first game in the best 2 out of 3. Tuesday, March 11 the T-Birds will entertain Paris at 6.30 p.m. Don't miss that one.

Meanwhile the T-Birds have not remained idle as they continue practicing and have played five games. Last Saturday the T-Birds went to the Consolation Final before being beaten by Brampton. The boys represented Streetsville quite well in the three games played that day. Needless to add, they all slept well that night.

In the Consolation Series the IGA Peewees have been the busiest team playing four games within the past eight days. The boys are looking forward to their trip to the Goderich PeeWee Tournament later this month.

IGA split their four games winning two and losing two. Dennis Chadala, Dan Crawford and David Baldwin scored two goals each while Paul Vella, Wayne Bond and Dave Very scored singles. IGA will host Georgetown this Saturday at 7 p.m. at Streetsville Arena.

Hutt Fence split their first two games winning 6-4 against Preston and dropping a 6-1 decision to Guelph. Eric Ross scored the lone tally in Guelph while Dave Rollings scored no less than three goals against Preston. David Chadala added a pair with a single being credited to Shaun O'Connor. Hutt Fence plays their next two games away from home.

Maple Lodge Midgets gained a two point decision from Milton as Milton failed to show for the game. At Guelph the Maple Lodge lads lost a squeaker 1-0. This is a fine moral victory when you realize that Guelph is a powerful Triple A centre. On Monday, March 24 at 7.30 p.m. Preston will visit the Farm Boys

The Juvenile Derbys also eared a split in the first two games of their consolation round. Derbys were shut out 2-0 by Guelph but came back for a 3-1 victory over Georgetown. Bill Rowe, Glen MacPherson and Mike Walker tallied for the Derbys. Doug Kalapaca, Ed Veris, Bobby Varga and Randy Rundle earned the assists.

The Tournament Teams are preparing for their upcoming events. Each Sunday at 11 o'clock or 4.45 either the Tube Bender Paperweight Club or the Arena Sports Tyke team play. Admission is free and the hockey is great. Tube Benders tied Etobicoke Royal York 3-3 as Ricky Very, Ian Bedford and Steve Wicklum scored. Earlier that day the Arena Sports Tyke team were edged 4-3 in a real thriller by Wjat Hill. Kenton Tasker, Jimmy Hogue and Mike Prestidge scored for the Arena Sports boys.

Points From Letters

"WE ARE SORRY"

After all the trouble we stirred up in last week's issue, we would rather let this subject drop. However Ron Payne has demanded a written apology for remarks we made last week. We are happy to do this if it will help matters any. Ron did not refuse any of the statistics we compiled but requests that we point out that all his players did get equal ice time during the regular schedule. We take his word for it and if we happened to jump on him in his first offense, it was indeed unfortunate. To further clarify matters, the word "offense" is used here only in our own opinion. We thought we made that clear last week when we said Ron was "not breaking or even stretching any written league rule". We truly regret any scars we might have inflicted on Ron personally or on his son, a fine boy with a good hockey future. We are sorry too for any embarrassment we might have caused the SMHA. We have written several times that we think the organization is doing a good job and we still think so.

And to those who showered us with a tirade of denunciation we'll just consider it the heat of the battle and try to live it down. The one epithet which we are finding hardest to live down though is "gutless". It has started a nasty trend around home. My sons who were standing right there when I was thus addressed, are now also calling me gutless for not retaliating in similar vein. And now my wife thinks I'm gutless for not picking my son Dan for Athlete of the Week. Just goes to show you can't please everybody no matter what you write.

ROSS GOHEEN

P.S. We just saw the letters regarding my article of last week, as we went to press and it is too late for comment in this issue. We shall let it be the last word and consider the case closed. The apology was composed before we read the letters.

THE FOLLOWING ARE LETTERS RECEIVED IN ANSWER TO A LETTER PRINTED IN LAST WEEK'S REVIEW BY ROSS GOHEEN:

Dear Mr. Goheen:

On behalf of the Streetsville Minor Hockey Association, I am writing to you with regard to your Sports Column in The Review, on February 26th, 1969. I feel that this was a very unfair, uncalled for write up, being directed at Ron Payne. According to the constitution of the S.M.H.A., Ron Payne was playing within the rules and regulations of the constitution. Is it, therefore, proper to publicly criticize a man who plays within the rules?

If you were in attendance at last year's Annual meeting of the S.M.H.A., there was a recommendation put forth for equalizing ice time for all boys in the House League. The executive was instructed by those present, e.g. coaches, managers, referees, and interested parents, to table same for the future. This was done by a vote of those present. Were you present at this meeting and do you remember which way you voted on this recommendation?

Ron Payne has contributed a great deal to the Streetsville Minor Hockey Association since he has become involved in same. He not only coaches the House League team to which your column refers, but is a willing assistant at the Hockey School on Wednesdays. He is also coach of our Paperweight All Star Tournament team, of which I must add, he does not have a son playing on it. Each Sunday, you will find him giving up his time, either from 11.00 a.m. to 12.00 a.m., or from 5.00 p.m. to 6.00 p.m. at the arena coaching this team.

When there is a tournament on, such as was in Bramalea a few weeks ago, or Listowel or Dixie in the future, you will find Ron there, unselfishly giving of his time. It is just too bad that there are not a few more men around like Ron. The Streetsville Minor Hockey Association would sure welcome them into their fold.

I strongly feel that a public apology, through the same newspaper, should be made to Ron Payne, and the particulars that I have given to you, in regard to his help with the Streetsville Minor Hockey Association be brought out.

It takes a good man to come out faithfully and work with young hockey players, and it takes a good man to come and publicly apologize to a man who has been unfairly criticized. I trust that you will correct this unfair situation.

Yours very truly,
Signed: John A. MacPherson
President.

Mr. Goheen: "Wow" you are a sore loser, aren't you? Let this be a warning to coaches of the Novice House League to let your son's team win in the future. I'm glad I'm not coaching a Novice team because I must confess I played to win, though unsuccessfully, last Saturday as did many other naughty coaches. You were very noble Mr. Goheen to come to the coach's defense in the latter part of your article last week explaining briefly that what you claimed he had done, and of which you heartily disapproved, was perfectly correct according to the written league rules. I wasn't aware and neither were any of the other coaches to whom I spoke that we were to disregard the league rules and adhere to your regulations. Would you be so kind therefore to advise Mr. John McPherson to resign along with his executive staff of the House League Association so that, we, the coaches, might have one set of rules only to follow - yours. I'm sure there was a message in your article but the vindictive attack you made on the unfortunate coach clouded the issue considerably. It would appear however that the Minor Hockey League Association should have been at the receiving end of your tirade.

Perhaps Mr. Goheen you could advise a father what to tell his disheartened son dejectedly returning home from school where a newspaper article which made rather serious accusations about his Dad in the eyes of an eight year old boy was read and treated as a current event project in class.

Your suggestion that regulations be set up which would guarantee equal ice time to all young hockey players certainly has merit. I'm certain that most coaches and parents will agree with you that a workable system would be very welcome and I know that the Minor Hockey League executive is very receptive to new ideas and suggestions. Why not encourage parents in your newspaper column to attend the Hockey meetings and express their thoughts and present constructive ideas.

Mr. Goheen Streetsville is a real nice little town filled with wonderful people. I'm sure many people have personal differences but few, thank heavens, would choose to settle their problems by publicly abusing a fellow citizen.

To the Coach in question - I speak for all of us when I say "Don't let it get you down. We're all with you".

To the coach's son - "Your Dad's the greatest and tell all your schoolmates that the people of Streetsville think that he is Tops not only as a Coach but as a gentleman."

To you Mr. Goheen - I'm certain you would gain a great deal of personal satisfaction, if you would make some

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

TIM CALLAHAN

After being runner-up for three years in a row Tim Callahan determined that he would go out as the Champ. He did. Tim brought a championship back to Streetsville High School in the 141 pound division of the 1969 Mississauga Wrestling Championships last week.

Tim was unable to compete in the Toronto District championship matches a few weeks ago but if he had, there is a strong likelihood that he would have won that also. In last week's Mississauga finals he pinned Applewood's Jeff Whitehead who had lost by a single point to the man who won the Toronto District title. Tim won all but one of his 15 matches and that loss could be considered a fluke.

Tim who is in grade 13, now retires from high school wrestling as a champion. He is looking forward to one more big thrust before he finishes his high school athletics. A track man who runs the middle distances, he ran on the record-breaking 2 1/2 mile relay team for his school at Hamilton last year. He is a member of the Rovers and recently was honoured with an Award of Merit for presence of mind in an emergency. He hopes to go to the University of Toronto next year and start a Phys. Ed. course.

INTERNATIONAL INTERMEDIATE HOCKEY

Streetsville "Hot Shots" (they don't have a sponsor) moved into the semi-final round of the Intermediate International League by beating Mississauga before a large crowd at the arena last Sunday night. The International League games take place each Tuesday and Sunday evening at the arena and many Streetsville fans, still hockey-hungry after the Derby's early exit are getting their kicks out of Intermediate hockey these days. They call it the "International League" because they play international rules - less body checking, less mayhem, etc. - at least until playoffs start, that is. In last week's playoffs the action wasn't exactly lady-like and a couple of men named Hartley could not be accused of handling their opponents with kid gloves. The calibre of hockey is good, though, on a par with OHA Intermediate and the personnel includes some pretty fair hockey players including junior B and junior C alumni and even a few former pros.

The Streetsville entry got started late in the season. They took over the franchise of a Georgetown team that had to drop out because of a shortage of players. The record they had for a start was Georgetown's 1-5. At first, they lost a few more until they got their roster built up. Since that time, they have been one of the strongest teams in the circuit. The team they now meet, Sutherland Construction, won the league pennant and has been waiting with a bye into the semi-finals.

In last week's games Streetsville tied and won. In the tie the Hot Shots came from behind a 2-0 deficit. Paul Roberts had scored twice for Mississauga in the first period. Past the half way mark of the second Ken Bond scored Streetsville's first, assisted by Scott MacKenzie. With five minutes to go Joe Hore and Jim Workman teamed up to tie the score at 2-2. Streetsville went a goal up three times in the second game but the Mississauga team finally grew weary of tying it up and the fourth time Streetsville went ahead they stayed ahead. In the first period Doug Hartley scored, then Reg Davidson tied it up. John Ganton put Streetsville ahead 2-1 and Davidson tied it up again. Two minutes later Joe Hore scored only to have Roberts tie it up. It was Jon Clipperton's goal that put the Hot Shots ahead to stay. Then late in the game with the Mississauga net empty Tom Thomson put in a long shot and Streetsville won 5-3.

TOURNAMENT HOCKEY

NOVICE

Streetsville Thunderbirds made a good account of themselves in an all-day novice hockey tournament in Guelph last Saturday. Competing in a tournament of all triple-A clubs, the Streetsville entry surprised with their strong showing. They lost two and won one but in doing so proved they were not out of their class. The club won the A division championship in the Tri-County Hockey League and now is waiting for an opponent to be declared for them to meet in further Central Ontario playoffs.

TYKE (age - up to 9 years last December 31)

Streetsville's Tyke All-Stars, being groomed for the local April tournament played an exhibition game on Sunday. Sponsored by Hore Bros. Arena Sports, the Tykes lost a close one to West Hill 5-4. The team went ahead three times on goals by Mike Prestidge, Jimmy Hogue and Kenton Tasker only to fall behind in the third period.

PAPERWEIGHT (age - up to 8 years last December 31)

The Streetsville Tube Benders who will represent the SMHA in Listowel and Dixie Paperweight tournaments soon, also played an exhibition game Sunday. They tied Royal York 3-3 on goals by Ricky Very, Ian Bedford and Steve Wicklum. Bedford, Very and Phillip Prestidge all got assists.

STREETSVILLE-MEADOWVALE HOCKEY LEAGUE

Glen Mullally for the second time and Guy Killaby and Geoff Blackwell for their first hat-trick ever.

PAPERWEIGHT

Elder Packing and Streetsville Flyers clinched the two positions for the Night of Little Champs on March 15 by each winning their second straight. The teams meet next Saturday in what amounts to an exhibition preview of the championship game.

Goalie Paul Taylor had his second perfect game in a row as his Flyers beat Streetsville Pharmacy 1-0 on Brian McLaughlin's unassisted goal. Geoff Blackwell racked up his hat trick on behalf of Elder Packing and it was all they needed to beat Moore Electric 3-1. Mark Mullally assisted two of the goals while Richard Hughes and Ross Carkner got one each. George Araujo scored the only goal on Elder goalie Mark Holmes in two games.

NOVICE

It appears to be Reid Milling and Canada Brick in the Novice Little Champs Night game. Reid Milling is in for sure as they beat Dominion 5-0. Gary Walker and Jim Zardo scored two each, David Chadala got one and Howard Martin got his third shutout.

Doug Payne scored and with Ricky Very assisted Kent Tasker's goal to

In some of the highest scoring games of the winter five SMHA players scored three or more goals last week. Biggest production was Daniel Goheen's five-goal outburst. Also noteworthy was Larry Ferguson's second four-goal effort of the winter. Three others scored hat-tricks, give Canada Brick a 2-2 tie. Jim Hogue scored for Lion's Club and assisted on Frank Araujo's goal as well.

Dan Goheen's five goals plus David May's first goal of the year gave Kerr Flooring a 6-2 win. Bob McLaughlin and Peter Dickey each had an assist. Roger Mazerolla scored both losing Canada Tire's goals, both assisted by Terry Anderson and one assisted by Bob Jarvis.

BANTAM

Larry Ferguson's big 4 goal attack assured Long's Service Centre of a spot in the finals. Gary Robinson, Terry Cormier and Derek Reimer each scored two while Ross Johnson (2), Doug Davison, Bob Smith, Brian MacRae and Robinson drew assists in the 7-1 rout over Pemrow Pipe Lines. Jim Kerr's goal averted complete disaster for Pemrow.

The other two bantam games were lop-sided shutouts. Canadian Legion stayed in contention by beating Canada Brick Truckers 5-0. Kim Flowers and Bill Merkley scored two each while Robbie Reid had a goal and an assist. Ed Pimentel and Merkley had one assist each. Phil Barnford gets credit for the shutout.

Rotary Club bounced back with a 7-0 shutout over Robinson's Pharmacy. Mike Goheen had two goals and two assists, Gary Gillis and John Knibbe two goals each and Mike Roy one goal. Assists went to Brian MacInnis (2), Harry Knibbe (2), Mark Gahan and Roy while the shutout goes to George Laurence.

PEEWEE

The hottest fight for positions in the Night of Little Champs, March 15, continues to be the three-way battle in the peewee division. The race won't be decided until the last game and it could conceivably even end in a three-way tie.

Kiwanis Club and Maple Lodge farms really didn't settle anything in their 4-4 tie last Saturday. For Kiwanis it was Glen Mullally's hat-trick plus an assist on John Halliday's goal. Halliday assisted on all Mullally's goals and Rick Williams also had two assists. For Maple Lodge Peter Lockwood and Peter Reid scored two each while Rob Oatt, Karl Lechler, Dave Crawford and Bob Prestidge assisted.

Guy Killaby's hat-trick accounted for all the goals in the game as Atkinson Insurance and goalie Mark Odd shut out Consumers Gas 3-0. Terry McMann assisted all the goals while Pete Beckett and Dan Harris got one assist each. Goalie Greg Finley got a shutout when Tony Panacci scored twice to lead Kinsmen to a 2-0 win over Hoy's Cafe. Keith Norris assisted both goals while Doug Tibbits also assisted the first goal and Jim Gray the second.

retribution to this gentleman. A good beginning would be a public apology in your column.

As I said previously, Streetsville is a real nice little town filled with wonderful people - Why change it now - Signed:

Roly Very

Dear Mr. Goheen:

By criticizing the Coach in your Review article last week - A Letter to a Coach - you have derided not only the coaches' efforts but their careful manipulation of words you have given rise to the possibility as to whether this Unnamed Coach is a gentleman or not (see fact #2, 2nd sentence of your article). As a writer you have a duty to report facts but this does not give you judicial authority. I also refer you to your fact #5, you imply that equal space would be forthcoming "if you saw to it" - you convey that you have privileged rights to line space in The Review.

I recommend that in the future you communicate in a more charitable and considerate manner and try to create a climate of meaningful dialogue. I wish to take a definite and exacting position without any conjecture - I state that the Unnamed Coach is a GENTLEMAN.

Yours sincerely,

HIGH SCHOOLBasketball
NEWS

The climax of the high school basketball season will take place at Erindale High School gymnasium this Friday night as 2000 vociferous high school students urge on their teams. We're not sure of the number 2000 but we ARE sure it will sound like at least that number. You have to be there once to believe that it's possible for such a high level of spirit and excitement to be sustained for about four hours. But don't bother trying to get in. This sporting event is sold out before the basketball season begins. Each school is allotted a limited number of tickets and if the school happens to be represented in one of the final games the tickets go like hot-cakes.

SENIOR

This year's finalists in the senior division will be Gordon Graydon versus either Kennedy or Applewood. Graydon earned the byewith an easy victory and a hard victory both on the same night last week. The tough win was a 57-47 win over Applewood that dropped the Axemen to third and put Graydon in a tie with Kennedy for first. The easy win was the coin toss they won over Kennedy that put the Graydon Hawks into the finals. Ed Drozdowski led the Hawks with 18 points followed by Mike Stoyka and Kent Smith with 13 each. D. Miller and John MacKenzie led Applewood.

JUNIOR

In the Junior game Applewood won 39-27. The same two teams played again Tuesday for the right to meet Erindale or Lorne Park in the Junior final which precedes the senior final at Erindale Friday evening.

BANTAM

Streetsville or Erindale will meet either Applewood or Westwood in the bantam final to be played on Thursday.

The Streetsville Senior Cinderella team had their big orange and black practice basketball turn into a pumkin. Just at the stroke of midnight, when it appeared that they might perform one of the most exciting comebacks in history their fairy godmother fouled out and they lost to Graydon. The team sure had their fans worked up for a while though. Much of the credit for the team's sudden emergence as a contender should go to Scott Horton. We watched Scott in the Graydon game and he lived up to all his advance notices, setting up plays, rebounding and sparking the team in general. Stu Wright, Chris Smith and Larry Nuttal led the scoring in the last two games but once again they were team efforts all the way. Streetsville's Bantam team has been a pleasant surprise. The only Streetsville team left in the running will know by the time this paper comes out whether they made it to the finals or not. If they did, good luck to them. If not, they deserve special mention for an excellent season that saw them improve with every game. Starting five players usually include Norm Pearson, Doug Estey, Gardo Pimentel, Robert Chadala and Glen Fletcher.

Brampton Business & Professional Women's Club enjoy interesting fabric display

Muriel M. Davidson

An interesting display of fabrics, uses, the variety that can be achieved was depicted in words and slides on Tuesday evening, February 18, at the regular meeting of the Brampton Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Mary Lock, president, conducted the dinner meeting held at the Centennial Recreation Centre in Brampton.

Phillip Salmon, an interior designer, graduated in graphic design from Central Technical Art School. He stressed the coordination of colours, getting first things first the budget of great consideration. Mr. Salmon told how, even with limited funds, a scheme could be worked out, with one able to make purchases six years from now, always keeping in mind the first major investment, generally the carpeting. A question and answer period followed in which he greatly assisted the members by answering their questions. He proved that design is really our environment and creating a colorful place of one's own.

The annual candle-lighting ceremony was held with the two vice-presidents, Mrs. Ann Felesko and Mrs. Dorothy Marchant, lighting the candles and Mrs. Marchant as reader. The first candle to be lit was one representing the oldest federation, formed in 1919 in United States. The last candle lit represented the future.

New members were introduced by the membership chairman, Miss Hannah Yarranton. The by-laws presented by Mrs. Ann Felesko and her committee were accepted by the local club to be forwarded to the provincial committee for review. Active and associate members are invited to contact a club member for attendance at the meetings held the third Tuesday of each month, coming dates to remember are - March 24, Bridge Round Robin

Final at the Junior Farmers' Building; March 30, Creed Luncheon; April 16, Talk by Mrs. J. Stensson, landscape architect, on "Landscaping Your Garden". Both men and women are invited to attend the latter meeting with an admission fee to be charged.

HALTON PRESBYTERIAL UNITED CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING & ELECTIONS

The seventh annual meeting of Halton Presbyterial United Church Women was held on February 19. Mrs. W. D. Stainton, President, greeted over 270 members and they were made welcome at Christ Church, Clarkson by the U.C.W. President Mrs. L. Doherty.

The Worship Service was conducted by the ladies of Port Nelson United Church. Following the business and election of officers, Dr. N. K. Campbell of East Plains United Church, conducted an impressive installation of officers. Past President - Mrs. H. Parker, Port Credit; President - Mrs. W. D. Stainton, Oakville; Exec. Vice President - Mrs. K. O. Foster, Milton; Recording Secretary - Mrs. Roy Coulter - Campbellville; Treasurer - Mrs. L. B. King, Waterdown; Committee Chairman - Mrs. G. K. McMillan, Streetsville; Literature and Communications - Mrs. E. Flowers, Meadowville; Literature presentation was done in a skit form by Mrs. N. K. Campbell and Mrs. E. M. Flowers and Mr. W. Bird of distribution centre, Toronto. In the afternoon sessions the highlight was the address by Mrs. Ronald Smith from All Saints Anglican Church, Toronto whose topic was "An Evangelist - Who Me?"

Survey

A Motor-Vehicle survey has revealed that in 1940 each car on the road contained an average of 3.2 persons. In 1950 occupancy declined to 2.1 persons per car. By 1960 the average was down to 1.4 persons. If we project the statistics to 1980, every third car going by will have nobody in it.

A community of quiet elegance

Fuse lit on 'time-bomb'

Almost unnoticed, a quiet revolution has been mounted within the federal Liberal party: slowly, undramatically young Liberals are trying to take control of the party's grass roots organization.

It began in Saskatchewan last year, when the Young Liberals for the first time took part in the provincial senior party's annual convention, and succeeded in getting young people into posts normally held by senior party members. More recently, the Young Liberals of Toronto used their greater stamina to mount a seductively simple takeover. At a January meeting of the Toronto and district Liberal Association they kept things going for five hours and when older members grew tired and left, the patient young Turks rammed through a resolution giving them more delegates at future conventions.

In Quebec, too, the Young Liberals have infiltrated the federal-Liberal organization so that many of their views have, since February, been enshrined in party policy.

In disclosing this party takeover bid, the March issue of Maclean's magazine publishes an article by broadcaster Norman Depoe in which he suggests the young Turks may make a massive response to Prime Minister Trudeau's repeated suggestions that the young get involved in politics.

"It (the invitation) may be turning into a time bomb, with the time of explosion still indefinite but awaited with a good deal of apprehension", writes Depoe.

SHERIDAN PLANS GOV'T. COURSE WITH PEEL-HALTON OFFICIALS

On February 14 Hamilton, Director of Extension at Sheridan College met with a group of distinguished citizens of Peel and Halton Counties to form a Committee to promote a course in local government which the College will sponsor in co-operation with the Ontario Chamber of Commerce and Department of Municipal Affairs.

The course, which is the brainchild of a group known as the Ontario Conference on Local Government, has three main objectives. These are: to interest the average citizen in municipal affairs by increasing his general knowledge in this area; to provide knowledge to those serving the public in elected or appointed capacity; to encourage high calibre candidates to serve municipal governments in one form or another.

The course has already been presented in several Ontario centres with great success.

The course will run each Wednesday for 6 weeks, beginning on March 26. Each evening two topics on municipal government will be presented and discussed by experts.

At the meeting it was agreed that there was a real need among the general public for information on local government. Reeve Hazel McCallion of Streetsville, drew attention to the fact that recently - announced plans for regional government in Peel-Halton should make every citizen even more interested in municipal government.

Those present at the meeting voted Don Hamilton as Chairman and discussed the promotion and organization of the course. It was decided to enlist support from more groups in the community and to meet next Friday to report progress.

Those present were: Arthur Speight, Deputy-Reeve Georgetown; Phil Waite, Brampton and District Chamber of commerce; Mrs. Motra Dryborough, Brampton and District University Women's Club; Jim Jain and Mrs. Virginia Thorne, Department of Municipal Affairs; Mayor William Brydon, Brampton; Mrs. E. v. e. Blain, Port Credit University Women's Club; Robert Holmes, Chief Clerk, Township of Chinguacousy; Reeve Hazel McCallion, Streetsville, and Mrs. Aye Cooper, Public Relations, Sheridan College.

A horse-drawn sleigh ride through picturesque Black Creek Pioneer Village is a favorite wintertime weekend pastime for both adults and children. Black Creek Pioneer Village, located at Jane Street and Steeles Avenue, in northwest Metro Toronto, also has weekend skating on a flooded parking lot, and the area provides skiing for children and beginners as well as sledding and tobogganing. Black Creek conservation area is one of seven areas open to the public during the winter by the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.

CAMPING IN THE SNOW

Outdoor winter camping is one of the many facilities provided by the Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority for the public in several of its conservation areas open during the winter months. Group camping facilities are available at Cold Creek, Albion Hills, Boyd, Heart Lake, Bruce's Mill and Greenwood areas, and this form of winter pastime is becoming increasingly popular as a weekend form of recreation. The Authority has seven of its areas open for various winter sports and activities.

Another three year term for McMillan

Three new members were welcomed to the annual meeting of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority last week. Murray Bryn, representing East Gwillimburgh Township, Howard Stewart, representing Chinguacousy Township, and Lloyd Chesney, Town of Oakville, were introduced to the members by Chairman R. K. McMillan.

Mr. McMillan also announced that he had just received his Order in Council from the Minister of Energy and Resources Management, Hon. J. R. Simonett, appointing him Chairman of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority for another three years.

Robert R. Parker, Acting, now holds the position of an appointed member and B. C. Smith, Port Credit, was re-appointed for three years.

REGIONALISM

During discussion at the executive level, members agreed that the new Regional Government proposed recently could have disastrous effects on the work of Conservation Authorities if it was allowed to interfere.

A motion, prepared by the executive, was passed unanimously stating that "The Credit Valley Conservation Authority strongly recommends to the Minister of Energy and Resources Management and to the Minister of Municipal Affairs that the present watershed system, as it applies to representation, organization and jurisdiction, be continued until the practice of Regional Government will have been established, or, at least, for a period of five years."

Reasons given for the motion included the fact that regional jurisdiction could not possibly conform to the geographic boundaries of watersheds and the enthusiasm, experience and voluntary service of many dedicated persons are important contributions to the furtherance of conservation.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Eric M. White was re-elected Vice-Chairman of the Authority, a position he has held for several years.

STREETSVILLE STRUTTERS ATTEND NOVICE DANCE

Over forty sets of square dancers enjoyed the Novice Night Dance held on February 22. Among those attending were six couples from the Streetsville Strutters Club with their caller Don (and Marge) Sherlock, who called several squares.

Following the dance the strutters returned to the home of Lil and Alf Noyes for the "after party". Delicious refreshments were served bringing a most enjoyable evening to an end. Last Thursday a few couples attended the "Hard Times" dance at Acton and on Tuesday, March 4 several couples again returned to Acton to participate in the Tri-Club Novice Dance. The three clubs, from Guelph, Acton and Streetsville are planning a Novice Dance to be held in Streetsville in the near future.

FOUR CORNERS SQUARES DANCE CLUB MARDI GRAS NIGHT

The festivities are over but the memories of an exciting evening will linger on. Nonsense and the unusual, best describe the Mardi Gras held by the Four Corners Square Dance Club on Saturday, February 22 at T. L. Kennedy High School. The school was colourfully decorated with numerous balloons on one wall, streamers with coloured hearts on another, booths filling one corner and the refreshment area with bright tablecloths, serviettes and artificial flowers.

The club members and guests did themselves proud. Their costumes varied from a few common drunks in saggy, baggy suits to a formal gown, a beautiful corsage and a tuxedo. There were two very fat clowns and there was the clown in his suit of patches. His wife sported a matching patch dress, Raggedy Ann and Andy - no doubt.

At intermission there was lots of excitement. The drunks walked a tight rope held by the two fat clowns. One drunk and his real live dog did tricks. A three-headed monster escaped from behind one of the booths and four charming women - two Southern Belles and two Western Lassies (with hairy legs) competed for top place in the Mardi Gras beauty contest. To the delight of the men, there were also topless girls. Needless to say, their delight was slightly diminished when they discovered topless meant from the hips down. However, shapely legs made the disappointment bearable.

Another extremely successful evening is now behind the club. It is time to plan for the big Spring Dance on April 19. Everyone is welcome and there will be an orchestra. The Spring Dance is the highlight of the year so do try to join the club. A Friendship and teen dance will be held on Saturday, March 22. Come, bring your friends and teenagers and have a good time with the Four Corners Square Dance Club.

STREETSVILLE

A Father and Son Banquet will take place for the Streetsville Scouts, Cubs and Venturers on Wednesday evening March 12 in the auditorium of Streetsville United Church.

The 1st Streetsville Venturer Company went skeet-shooting last weekend. The boys received instructions in the art of skeet shooting from a qualified skeet shooter.

be a preliminary engineering study from the C. N. Railway Line to Lake Ontario with Mississauga as the beneficiary municipality.

Also in Mississauga, tenders will be called for the repair of the Erin dale landslide area along the Credit River.

BOARD OF EDUCATION - A committee of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority will work closely with the Peel County Board of Education when the Board sets up its Field Study Centre on land abutting the Terra Cotta Conservation Area. A request has been sent to the Board requesting the Authority be kept informed of all plans regarding this area as it could affect the Conservation Area at Terra Cotta.

TRAINING FOR SUPERINTENDENT - Norman J. McMahon will attend the Great Lakes Park Training Institute at Angola, Indiana, this month for further study in operating procedures for recreational areas in the Credit Valley watershed.

FORECAST - A five year forecast of work of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority, requested by the Conservation Authorities Branch, was approved as presented by the staff and will be forwarded immediately.

A.O.T.S. GLEE CLUB THRILLS SENIORS

Over 400 Seniors (the 6 Mississauga Clubs) had invited fellow Seniors from Local 232 Retirees, Brampton and Etobicoke Clubs to join them gathered at Allan A. Martin Senior Public School for their monthly get together. Guest artists were the Scarborough A.O.T.S. Glee Club who presented a delightful and varied programme of music. Accompanying the choir was Mrs. Ruth Butt, and the spotlight shone on Mrs. Bette Davis, the bubbly contralto, and Irish baritone Bob McNell. Two junior guests were Susan Antler who perfected several Scottish dance numbers and Kjn Andrews with his accordion. Throughout the entire performance Glee Club soloists Bob Campbell and Sid Milnes thrilled the audience with their selections. To wind up the programme one of the most stirring renditions ever heard of The Battle Hymn of the Republic was sung, and following the evening's performance the Seniors and their guests enjoyed a delightful social hour with refreshments.

APPLEWOOD SENIORS

Miss Eleanor Blake, Seniors' Co-ordinator for the Town of Mississauga and Mrs. Lucy Turnbull, President of the Mississauga Seniors' Guild, attended the annual elections of the Applewood Seniors' Club held recently at their meeting place, St. Lukes - on the Hill. Mrs. Dorothy Wood was again returned for a second term as President, with Mrs. Dolly Bryerton undertaking to assume the dual role of Vice-President and Programme Convenor. Mrs. Tina Preston looks after the Secretarial duties and Mr. Jack Niven was elected to handle the purse strings. Retiring Treasurer, Mrs. Nan Fleming agreed to accept the role of Publicity Convenor. After a brief business meeting during which amended copies of the constitution were distributed, a social hour of cards was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Lucille MacDonald of the U.C.W. Church group. Everyone agreed it was a most delightful evening and this certainly is a happy, cheerful and enthusiastic group of Seniors.

MALTON SENIORS

The regular meeting of the Malton Seniors was held on Friday, February 14, at which time the new officers took over, memberships were renewed, and a pleasant evening was spent straightening out the business and socializing. Some 21 members attended the regular meeting of the Credit Valley Neighbours held on Thursday, February 13. Mrs. Minims, the Vice-President was in the chair, and the members enjoyed playing Once a week a close bingo. The meeting was in the nature of a birthday party for member Mrs. Robinson, with the birthday cake being supplied by her daughter Mrs. Connolly - and refreshments served by the Council of members of the U.C.W. Christians and Jews

COOKSVILLE

At the meeting of the Cooksville Seniors, 53 members were taken on a delightful trip to Bermuda by Miss Peart and Mrs. Joyce Raynor by way of an illustrated travelogue, which everyone found most interesting. Two new members were welcomed and all enjoyed a social hour with refreshments.

The Roving Reporter understands that big things are in store for the Seniors of the six Mississauga Clubs in the spring and summer months, including a possible boat ride on the lake, a visit to the Islands and tea - just to name one adventure.

Brotherhood Week celebrated by Kiwanis Club

by Muriel M. Davidson

Brotherhood Week was celebrated by the Brampton Kiwanis Club at their regular meeting on February 19 at the Squires Inn, Brampton. Key Club members Kiwanians were among the many in attendance along with special guests including Lloyd LaVaux of Malton and Diane Miller of Brampton.

The meeting was conducted by the president Ron Hiscock. Gord Allison led a singsong with Mrs. Iva Davidson at the piano. A report of the recent Kiwanis visit to Chicoutimi, Quebec was given by John Cockburn.

Mrs. Mary Lock, president of the Brampton Business and Professional Women's Club, was guest speaker. She brought many personal thoughts gathered during her years of attachment to the diplomatic corps of the United States, living in various parts of the world.

"There is not any particular theme for Brotherhood - it is fixed early in life, cannot be mass produced, comes from within. The Just Society starts in the heart - without it, we need to be pitted."

"How many here can give their honest opinion of the proposed refugee program? Do we make friends with people from other countries? Do we like having the privacy of our homes invaded? It seems that people with larger families are always ready to take someone in, although the affluent society has put an end to this greatly."

"Many countries we are helping out by building dams, sending church bales, the people never turn anyone away. In the East are some of the finest people in the world. It is a hard and fast rule that the servants' quarters are their own little castle in ten by ten rooms. In ten by ten a week a close check was made to see that extra people did not move in and thereby give one extra servants."

When Mrs. Lock was invited to speak to the Kiwanians, she found members of the Council of Christians and Jews furnished sneakers, brochures, held seminars, had 33 directors, all men. "Evidently women do not have the same problems men experience with brotherhood." She gave fine examples of people, living in Brampton, helping many during the past few years.

"I don't think there should be a need for Brotherhood Week. Many think a child's thinking is fixed when seven years old, with any future prejudices learned from parents. This quotation by A. Whitney Griswold is a fitting tribute: 'Self-respect cannot be hunted. It cannot be purchased. It is never for sale. It cannot be fabricated out of public relations. It comes to us when we are alone, in quiet places, when we suddenly realize that knowing the good, we have done it, knowing the beautiful, we have served it, knowing the truth, we have spoken it.'"

Mr. Madgett thanked Mrs. Lock and presented her with flowers as a token of appreciation.

A special guest, accordionist Diane Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Miller, Woodward Avenue, attended the dinner. Diane won the 1968 Brampton Kiwanis Club accordion scholarship at the Peel Music Festival and will be competing again this year. She said "thank you" in her special way - with music.

"A French Waltz" composed by her teacher, Lloyd LaVaux, Malton, was a fitting selection for Brotherhood Week. While Mr. LaVaux had been in a World War II German prisoner-of-war camp using an accordion given by the International Red Cross, the music of the country-type waltz was composed. Diane followed this number with "Minuet" from Bernice and as an encore a toe-tapping "Mexican Polka". Mr. Hiscock presented her with the President's Rose at the close of the meeting.

When Mrs. Lock was invited to speak to the Kiwanians, she found members of the Council of Christians and Jews

HORSE SHOW CATEGORIES ARE MANY & VARIED

by Sybil Jacobs

Up to this year, horse shows have come and gone in this particular area without any real thought being given to their why and wherefore. It is now obvious to people like myself who have been involved with horses and the organizing of horse shows for many years that the time has come when the average resident might like to have a few of the finer points and distinctions explained. I therefore called on Mrs. Anne Williams, editor of this paper (and more-over the only editor in this particular area who has reported horse show results for me without fail for six long years) and asked her if she would be good enough to allow me a little more space still to say a few words.

There is so much to say but at this point I will be as brief as possible. First of all, riders take their horses (and ponies) to shows for many different reasons:

A) To school their mounts over fences and jumps. These are generally known as "schooling shows" and are a wonderful opportunity for people even as well-known as Jim Day and our local Nancy Wetmore, to take their "green" horses along - green in this sense does not refer to colour but to the fact that the horse is just a beginner! These schooling shows are what we refer to as "open classes" - recognized shows which means that they are not run to the stringent rules and conditions set down by the Canadian Horse Show Association. There are regular monthly schooling shows held in most rural areas and riders who show on the now traditional circuit take advantage of such schooling shows whenever possible.

Here in a comparatively relaxed atmosphere the horse can be schooled over fairly easy jumps - he learns (if he is a beginner) to behave in the company of other horses - and what is more important still, his rider is completely relaxed because the fierce competitive atmosphere of a "recognized" show is absent.

As a rule at these schooling shows you will find junior classes (for riders under the age of 18 years) and what we call "open classes" for older people (don't forget there are people in their 60's who still show their horses!) This is the age distinction laid down by the Canadian Horse Show Association but the schooling show organizer is of course able to make his junior age limit anything he likes: he may prefer the rider to be 16, 17 or whatever you.

B) Assume the spring schooling shows are now over - say round about the end of March - now the excitement of the real competitor is worked up: the Canadian Horse Show Association circuit is about to commence - Canada is divided up into zones and Ontario is known as Zone 2: the riders are going to compete for zone awards and at the same time for ribbons which will qualify them for entry to the Royal Winter Fair Horse Show. Among the traditional shows are for example, London Hunt, the Richmond Hill, the Ancaster, the Hamilton Hunt, the Sutton Agricultural and now, of course, the Ontario Humane Society Junior. Some shows are for juniors only, some for "open" only, some are mixed but whatever the case, the stakes as far as the rider, young or old, is concerned, are high! Ribbons and zone awards are ridden for throughout the circuit as though they were going out of style!

I do not have space to go into detail on how the different shows are rated by the Canadian Horse Show Association but as far as qualifying for the Royal Winter Fair is concerned, suffice it to say a rider must win in the current year a 1st and a 2nd in an "A" rated show; or two 1sts in a "B" rated show; and three 1sts in a "C" rated show. Now every rider's ambition is to go as many shows as possible from April to the end of August, picking up en route as many ribbons as possible and thus as many points as possible towards zone awards. Don't forget, our three gold medalists this year all had to start as beginners, so when you yourselves go to watch a horse show this year you can pick out who you think may be a possible gold medalist in the future!

TYPES OF HORSES AND PONIES - This again I can't go into fully just now. I will just explain now what I find a lot of people don't know. You will see on a horse show programme that there are classes for hunters and jumpers (horses) and hunters and jumpers (ponies). The chief object of a jumper of course is HEIGHT, and to be quite blunt he jumps JUMPS. A hunter is another matter - he "TAKES FENCES" - that is to say that as a rule he will not be asked to take a fence over 4'9". These fences are built to simulate natural obstacles found in a hunting field. He skims the fences - he mustn't even tick them with his hoof! He does not raise his feet in the manner of a jumper going for height! GYMKHANAS I see in the Brampton press this week that "Gymkhanas" are referred to as being "for kids". This of course is unutterable nonsense. A gymkhana (believed to be a Hindustani word) has its origins so far back it's impossible to give an exact date but originally it meant any display of athletic and equestrian events. In the "horsey" sense it actually refers to these wonderful shows held by Western and quarter horse riders using Western tack and includes such magnificent events as reining, barrel racing, pole bending etc.

As far as the "Pony Gymkhanas" which I organize locally are concerned, these invariably include pony hunter and pony jumper classes and to keep a relaxed atmosphere as much as possible, I include musical chairs, sack races, etc.

EQUITATION Perhaps I should just mention that some people do not jump their horses at all but take great pride in becoming efficient in equitation, that is to say, the art of riding on horseback. Classes for Equitation are included in some horse shows and not in others. Needless to say the riders of hunters and jumpers will often enter these classes also.

I do hope that these few words will enable you to watch the next horse show you attend with a little more understanding.

Those pesky little stamps

by SYBIL JACOBS

It measures 7/8" wide and it's 5/8" deep - it's a less-than-appealing blur of orange (icky) with a picture on the front which hardly merits its hanging - at least not in an art gallery!

Any every-day item as small as this should keep quiet, lay low and bask in its own insignificance.

But not this little scrap of frustration for the last few weeks it has changed hands (from the local postmaster's hand, that is, to my unwelcoming, frigid little paw) so many times I couldn't even begin to count.

You're right - it's that little itty-bitty six cent postage stamp they've been palming off on us recently!

Ever tried separating one from its perforated adjoining brother or sister? Ever succeeded in separating one in an absolutely perfect condition? I'll bet you haven't because I say it can't be done! A corner comes off here - or a corner comes off there - what does it matter which corner comes off? I must have mailed a total of 60 letters (no kidding) since the beginning of this week and I swear not one of those letters bore a complete stamp on it when I pushed it furiously into the gaping mail box.

What's more, by the time I've finally succeeded in acquiring a separate half-dozen dog eared little monstrosities I've generally got the rest of the dozen stuck to the palm of my hand or flapping gaily at the end of my index finger!

Well yesterday I reckoned I was fed up with playing "Instant Insanity" day after day (I write an awful lot of letters you know!) so I feebly remonstrated with the aforementioned local postmaster.

"How much longer are you going to inflict these now-you-see-me, now-you-don't gremlins on your long suffering customers?" I asked.

"Ha, ha" quoth that genial figure at the other side of the counter "you can come in next week and stock up on our guaranteed full sized - doubly guaranteed top - ease all our customers, to perforate at a flick of the thumb, and to behave under all circumstances like a respectable Canadian postage stamp should".

With every word he uttered my spirits soared, and I could see myself buying, perforating and lip-sticking - on (I always lip-stick-on, don't you?) absolutely delicious full-sized Canadian postage stamps once again.

But it appears I was counting my chickens before they were hatched - the last words of our beloved postmaster were still ringing in my ears as I groped my way out thru the swinging door and out into the cold, wintry air "Goodbye now - come early next week and buy plenty of our new issue - we only have a limited number coming in and when they have been sold - it will be back to the old 7/8" by 5/8".

SAFETY TIPS

Bad weather made for a number of flight delays at the airport. One passenger was growing increasingly impatient. When a further 30 minute delay was announced he walked up to the ticket agent and said "I don't see why you people even bother publishing a flight schedule."

The agent replied in his calm, professional tone, "Well, sir, we have to have something to base our delays on."

Many otherwise good drivers threaten the safety of other motorists, unwittingly, by stopping in a driving lane on a highway to make some adjustment, such as cleaning the windshield. This is illegal, and the obstruction can lead to other vehicles getting into collision. Ontario Safety League urges drivers to pull off the travelled portion of a highway before stopping - ALWAYS.

'Night of Little Champs'

Streetsville Minor Hockey Association will present their "Night of Little Champs" on Saturday, March 15 - next Saturday.

Back in October over 330 boys on 22 organized teams in the Streetsville Minor Hockey Association House League, started the 1968-69 season, playing a regular league schedule. Every boy's hope at that time, was that his team would be playing on "Night of Little Champs".

On Saturday, March 15, eight of these teams will be playing for the Championship trophies. The "Tadpoles" who participated each Saturday during the season, will start the "NIGHT" off with an exhibition of their newly acquired "Hockey Skills". This is one night that no parent or player should miss. Your ticket admits you to the Arena for all games, plus a chance for the grand prize of a portable T.V.

Following is the Schedule:
Tadpoles Exhibition 5.30 - 6.30 p.m.
Paperweight Championship 6.30 - 7.10
Novice Championship 7.20 - 8.00
Peewee Championship 8.20 - 9.00
Bantam Championship 9.10 - 9.50

L. Lee dies in Florida

Lenard (Len) Lee, 59 years, founder of the Lee Funeral Home, Streetsville passed away on Thursday, March 6 while vacationing at Pompano Beach, Florida.

He leaves his widow Marion Henry, and a son James D. Lee.

Mr. Lee rested at the Lee Funeral Home until noon on March 10. The service was held in Trinity Anglican Church with interment in Streetsville Cemetery.

Brownies say "Goodbye"

On Monday, March 3, the Brownies of the 2nd Streetsville Pack said "Goodbye" to their Brown Owl, Mrs. Paula Grainger who is moving to Winnipeg. Mrs. Grainger has been active in guiding in Streetsville for 13 years and has been Brown Owl and Guide Captain as well as serving on both Streetsville District and Mississauga Division Committees.

Mrs. N. Sutherland, Mississauga Division Commissioner, presented Mrs. Grainger with Girl Guide book ends and the Tawny Owl of the Pack presented her with a clutch purse from the Brownies and their mothers.

S.S.S. wins Mississauga Basketball Crown

Streetsville Secondary School Bantam Basketball team were crowned the champions of Mississauga in a thrilling come-from-behind win on Monday afternoon. Coming from behind has been a specialty of this team all season. They lost their first four games, then kept improving until they had built up a 5 and 3 record by season's end. This was barely good enough to squeeze into the playoffs but that was just enough for this team. They pulled the upset of the season in the semi-finals when they beat previously undefeated Erindale high school 34-29.

The final game was against Westwood who themselves had come to the finals the hard way, upsetting a highly favoured Appleton Heights team.

Westwood had a narrow 16-14 lead at half time. It was at this point the Streetsville team showed the marks of true champions. They didn't panic, they played it calm and just kept setting up until they gradually pulled ahead to win by 9 points 33-24. Edgardo Pimentel and Norm Pearson led the scoring attack. Bob Chas-data shadowed Westwood's Johnny Graham, one of the best players in the area and Bob's effort was one of the key turning points in the game. Others starring were captain Doug Estey, team leader and organizer, hustling Glen Fletcher, Bill

Dickson and Ted Kilpatrick. Congratulations to the team and to its coach Ron Reesor who did such a fine job of molding a winner out of a group of boys that looked like anything but winners a couple of months ago.

Adult skating extended

Although attendance has not been large, adult skaters at Streetsville Arena have been enthusiastic. The ice is usually half flooded for the hockey practice at 10.30 before they are all chased off to the dressing room.

Any readers who have not been out should note that the season lasts for three (3) more Thursday nights - until March 27. Skating goes from 9.00 until 10.30. Admission 50¢ per person. It's an ideal night for pleasure skating with room to spare, and music you can hear. Everyone 16 or older is welcome; take advantage of the remainder of the season. The organizers, under Cliff Moffat's direction, have appreciated the support of the 'regulars' and take this opportunity to thank them.

Man charged

Streetsville Police report an "indecent exposure" incident occurred on Thursday, March 6 about 8.30 a.m. on Britannia Road near Queen Street.

The charge was laid by Deputy Chief Rutledge after a local school girl had obtained a vehicle license number. The incident occurred while she was on her way to school.

A Burlington man is expected to plead "not guilty" to the charge when he appears in Brampton Court on March 20.

Movie time

The 1st Streetsville Scout Troop will sponsor two showings of the movie "Mary Poppins" on Tuesday, March 18 in the auditorium of the Streetsville United Church.

Show time will be at 1.30 p.m. and at 7.00 p.m.

HYDRO- Regional Or Otherwise ?

Area hydro Commissioners are at odds with a recommendation of the Ontario Municipal Electric Association that hydro electric systems be administered on a regional basis.

At a meeting held March 3, three P.U.C. members from Streetsville, two Hydro Commissioners from Mississauga, and one P.U.C. Member from Port Credit came to a unanimous agreement that "one Commission for the area presently considered as Port Credit, Streetsville and Mississauga would best serve the needs of this area."

It was also agreed that the Chairmen of the three Commissions should make a careful analysis of various items, such as capital costs, debentures and rates, in order that some method could be proposed in order to establish an equitable basis for establishment of the proposed Commission."

Secretaries hear very interesting speaker

The West Branch of the Association of Administrative Assistants comprised mainly of secretaries to senior management, had as their speaker Mr. Lee Ogen, P.S. Ross & Partners, Management Consultants, Toronto.

He suggested that the members strive to develop strong leadership realistic and obtainable goals, a good public relations image and the ability to "sell your product, which is a people." To attain increased recognition and acceptance by the business world he suggested a functional skills acceleration program coupled with a programmed public relations format. "Offer a program that will train and retain membership," he added.

When asked what he required in a secretary, Mr. Ogen replied that the ability objectively, relate to senior executives, know the routine, be aware of what goes on in the business world and possess a high mental ability, were qualities he would look for.

Several of the secretaries have recently completed a course in Effective Supervision presented by the Department of Education and conducted by Mr. Ogen. It is hoped that a further course designed for secretaries to superior management will be conducted in the fall.

The next General Meeting will be held on March 19 at the Vahlia Inn, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Olive Webb, Vice-President of Mutual Placement Agency & "Consultants," and Mrs. Audrey Ford, Counselor, will give an insight into the operation of a placement agency. All secretaries are welcome.

Secretaries interested in joining a progressive stimulating and friendly association please contact: Miss Ellen Barncrough, Membership Chairman, Association of Administrative Assistants, Box 191, La-lington, Ontario.

Mr. Ogen spoke to the secretaries at their February General meeting with regard to the possibility of enhancing their Association. He explained why people join associations; the emphasis on professionalism, and whether it would continue in the future as presently measured by today's standards; and the relationship of a professional association to the business community.

Influence of TV on children studied

Children should become actively involved in the aggressive and violent T.V. shows as they watch them and thus release their tension, otherwise, they will express it at some later time.

Children will imitate what they see on T.V. but for the most part it does not have a lasting effect.

We should open up the education system to suit present day needs. We should check the 'goals' we set for our children. Are they suitable goals for today?

The above are a few of the ideas expressed by Miss Helen Carscallen of the Department of Social Sciences at York University, as she spoke to the University Women's Club of Port Credit on Monday, March 3.

She chose "The Influence of T.V. on Our Children" as her topic and it created an enthusiastic discussion period and an interesting evening for all.

On the previous weekend the U.W.C. enjoyed an evening of delightful comedy with the Credit Valley Players' performance of "Never Too Late". It was the occasion of their annual Scholarship Fund Night and it was an unqualified success.

PROVINCIAL COURT CRIMINAL DIVISION

March 4

Jose Rodriguez, 38, had a little sideline to supplement his income: he sold lottery tickets. As a result, he found himself charged with unlawfully conveying the tickets, contrary to the Criminal Code of Canada. Mr. Rodriguez admitted sending a whole package of tickets to Portugal a week earlier, by handing it to a friend at the Ontario International Airport. Provincial Judge David Vanek was shown a stack of tickets seized from the accused, along with a cheque for $250 made out to a resident of Portugal. The court ordered the remaining lottery tickets to be destroyed, the cheque to be released and Mr. Rodriguez to pay a fine of $100.00.

Gordon Proulx, age 17, pleaded guilty to possession of cannabis, more commonly known as marijuana. On the 24th of February, officers of the Mississauga police force searched the residence of the accused and found a small quantity of the forbidden weed hidden in the basement. The Lorne Park Secondary School student was placed on probation for a two-year period by the court.

Another student, Lloyd Ainey, 17, had marijuana in his hand when accosted by police officers at the Lorne Park Plaza in Mississauga. He too, received a suspended sentence and probation.

Thomas Morlisse, a grade 13 student, admitted possession of a small amount of marijuana found by Mississauga police in a closet at his home. The court accorded him the same treatment, probation, but pointed out that this was not inevitably going to be the disposition in all cases of this nature.

Earl Ezard, 24, who attempted to buy a colour T.V. set from Sayvette's store by means of a phony cheque, was sentenced to one month in jail. At the time, the accused presented identification in the name of a Whithby resident whose wallet had been reported stolen last August.

Client-Contractor team creates new building

When client and contractor get together to plan a major building, something new and unique is apt to happen. This seems to be true in the case of the new plant and office building of B. D. Wait Co. Limited just completed on Wyecroft Road, Oakville. Both Wait, the client, and Internorth Construction Limited, the contractor, express high satisfaction with the result of this teamwork.

A subtle architectural blending of the traditional and the modern, the new building has the dual virtue of serving present needs and adaptability to future requirements. Even the end wall of steel can be moved out for expansion.

The expanse of sloping colored roof which covers 64,800 square feet adds a dynamic feeling to the design while in turn the interior sloped ceiling permits ultra high stacking of products. Also, according to Internorth, its technique of Butler MRF clear open spans (60' x 24' bay sizes) within the area makes any product manufacturing innovation easy, flexible and practical. Walls enclosing the building are of masonry on the front, combined with a Butler Monopylon for added interest at the entry; masonry is also on the west; concrete block walls on the south combine with centrally controlled electrically operated doors to provide a self-sufficient shipping area; while a movable colored Butlerrib insulated wall on the east will permit any expansion in this direction. Another expansion note is that the framing system is designed to add a functional floor area in increments of 24 x 400 feet each time the building is enlarged.

The building contains a special training area which accommodates 75 people. The whole building is linked with a telephone, intercom, loud speaker connected system that ensures rapid communication between all personnel. As part of the Wait and Internorth planning, the Wait Company also designed a complete gas heating and air conditioning system for the building. Total construction services were provided by Internorth using the facilities of its affiliated companies: Kin-Tech Services Limited for engineering and architectural design; and Steel Building Sales Limited for supply and erection of the Butler pre-engineered building system.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Madam:

The Government of Ontario has introduced legislation which will have the effect of destroying the humane movement in Ontario as we now know it.

At present, the Ontario Humane Society has the authority to investigate complaints of cruelty and neglect of animals. The Society employs inspectors throughout the Province to carry out this task.

The Government intends to limit the authority of these inspectors in such a way that for all practical purposes, they will be helpless. Apart from requiring all inspectors to obtain special warrants before making any investigation, the Government is also proposing to set up a Board to review these officers' actions "on complaint from the public". There is no doubt that this will so intimidate inspectors that they will be unable to carry out their job. In addition, the legislation will force all Humane Societies to surrender all unclaimed animals, not only to research institutes but to dealers in animals for research. In other words, any private animal dealer operating for profit will have the right to enter any shelter and demand any unclaimed animal.

Even worse, the Government legislation specifically protects dealers' establishments against any investigation or inspection by inspectors of the Ontario Humane Society. Remember, these are the premises that have led to so many prosecutions and convictions for neglect in past years.

There are over 700 farms in Ontario where pregnant mares are kept under inadequate conditions, deprived of exercise, deprived of an adequate diet. And which produce countless thousands of foals every year, the majority of which are weaned at a very tender age and transported long distances before being sold. The legislation will classify these premises as "research premises" and protect them against any inspection by the Society.

The Ontario Humane Society does not release animals alive for research. Our constitution and bylaws prohibit this. This clause of our constitution has been ratified from time to time, only as recently as 1967.

There seems little doubt therefore, that the Ontario Humane Society will refuse to comply with the Government legislation requiring them to surrender these animals. The only alternative left would appear to be for the Society to close down its animal shelters or turn them over to Municipalities for operation as Dog Pounds. There are 28 modern shelters in the Province today and a competent force of uniformed inspectors. This organization has been built up over the last 50 years by the dedicated efforts of countless thousands of voluntary workers. It would be a tragedy if the Government by this thoughtless, ill-considered action were to destroy this organization.

The research procurement legislation is a drastic invasion of civil rights and should be rejected on these grounds alone.

Everybody who is concerned with the prevention of cruelty to animals, who is concerned with civil rights, should protest these two Bills, 73 and 74, by writing to their Provincial member of Parliament in Queens Park, or by registering a protest in any other way.

Consumers' news and views

by Consumers' Association of Canada

Ever think life would be a whole lot less complicated if all fabrics were made of just wool, cotton, linen or silk? That's all Grandma had in the good old days and she always knew how to care for her clothes and what to expect of them.

Things have improved a lot since Grandma's day. We have fabrics that don't shrink or stretch, we have colors that don't bleed or fade, we even have fabrics that don't really have to be ironed. The trouble is, not all fabrics live up to this ideal, and you can't always be sure which kind you are buying.

Consumers are generally a pretty reasonable lot -- but the trouble is, we don't know what to expect. If we are told a fabric is delicate and must be hand-washed, most of us will follow instructions. But too often we are told nothing -- sometimes it even takes four or five hang-tags to do it! We have to guess at how to care for our purchases and wear the consequences.

To be fair, some fibre, fabric and garment manufacturers try, too. They give very detailed cleaning instructions on nicely printed hang-tags which, if they ever reach the consumer, are promptly detached from the garment and rarely associated with it again. It would seem to be a more logical step that the instructions be permanently attached to the garment by means of a sewn-in label.

A standardized set of symbols on a small label attached to a garment would be a permanent reminder to us to dry-clean or wash, bleach or not, as a fabric required. Neither the consumer nor the garment manufacturer want a large, oversized label telling us how to care for our household textiles, but with the use of symbols you can get the message with no language problems.

In Europe, labels with symbols have been in use for some years now. Most of them are similar, differing only in detail such as the use of color or the inclusion of the occasional word.

A Canadian Government Specifications Board Committee has been working on a care labelling scheme for nearly six years. The committee is composed of representatives of all phases of the textile industry from fibre producers to retailers, as well as other interested groups such as detergent manufacturers, launderers and dry-cleaners and consumers. Progress is being made and hopefully, some time this year, a care labelling scheme for use in Canada will be approved.

From this consumers' point of view, the symbols must be reasonably few, simple and easy to remember. But even more important, every symbol on a care label must be based on reliable information about the fabric to which it is attached, otherwise it is just someone else's guess.

Test methods have been established and standards set which every fabric must meet before it can be labelled with the symbol appropriate to that operation. It is important that the label apply to the whole article, not just the major component. If a garment is composed of two or more fabrics, each one must meet the required standard for the cleansing method recommended. This should eliminate the horrors of the shrinking interliner, bleeding color in the trim, rusting buttons or a disintegrating belt. Noteworthy, also, the method indicated on the label will be recommended by the manufacturer as safe and satisfactory. A garment labelled dry-cleanable might also be washable, but unless the label indicates that it is, you will wash it strictly at your own risk.

The important point is that an approved method of cleaning household textiles can be presented in a simple, clear symbol form and can be permanently fastened to the article to which it applies. Explanatory literature will be available telling exactly what the symbols mean and how the system will operate. When the great day comes and the Canadian care labelling scheme is introduced it will be welcomed by all consumers.

SWING INTO SPRING

Now's the time to join a class and get into shape for spring and summer clothes, and sweep winter's cobwebs out of your system. Whether you favour Yoga, Slimnastics, Gym & Swim, or Jazznastics, the Recreation and Parks Department have a class for you at Huron Park Recreation Centre.

Keep Fit Classes will be continued for an extra half-term at Westwood Secondary School and at Sheridan Park School. Registrations are being accepted now at the Recreation and Parks Office or at Huron Park Recreation Centre.

relay team that represented their Alderwood Swim Club in the Ontario championships held at Etobicoke. Competing against 27 of the best teams in eastern Canada from as far away as Montreal and Sudbury the relay team placed fifth in both the free-style relay and the medley relay. This is quite an accomplishment for the small club whose head coach is also from Streetsville, Mrs. Sylvia Elsele.

Streetsville's "Hot-Shots" lost the first game of their semi-final series 4-3 to the Sutherland team in the International Intermediate Hockey league playoffs. They rebounded in the second game to wallop the pennant winners 5-1 to suddenly assume the role of the favorites to meet Lakeview Army-Navy for the championship. Army-Navy put out the Air Canada team from Malton three straight.

Scorers in the two Streetsville games were Doug Hartley and Warren Wilke 2 each and Joe Hore, Russ Hartley, Tommy Thomson and Bob White 1 each.

Games are played at Streetsville arena Sunday and Tuesday evenings.

The Sheridan College hockey team which includes local boys Jim Workman, Ken Bond and Bruce Kalapaca, got to the final tournament but were beaten out in the elimination series. They lost to Algonquin College of Ottawa 5-3. Winners of the trophy were the Collegians from St. Clair College in Windsor.

Gordon Graydon's Senior basketball team encountered an unusual emergency in the inter-school basketball finals. It was discovered that Mike Stoyka needed a new pair of running shoes but it seems he needed size 46 or something. They finally did locate a huge pair somewhere and Mike was able to continue. Even with that much turned up for feet, Mike is still a pretty tall boy.

Tri-County hockey roundup

The Juvenile Derbys continue to play good hockey as the 3-3 tie with the Triple A Guelph centre indicates. Dave Lyons, Ed George and Glen Macpherson scored with Ed Virus and Mike Walker drawing assists.

Bernie Baldwin scored the lone Maple Lodge goal against Guelph. Guelph overpowered the Streetsville Club 6-1.

The I.G.A. Pee-wees despite a 1-0 loss to Georgetown played exceptional hockey - the forward lines skated well and a good stiff defence kept the Georgetown team in check. With the experience this club has picked up over the year the prospects for a good Bantam team look good in 69-70.

Travelling to Paris for the Thunderbirds proved disastrous as the T-Birds got dumped 5-0 by a good skating Paris team. Before a jammed house in Paris the T-Birds found themselves waiting an extra hour for referees. The T-Birds played one of their poorest games this year. The Thunderbirds have proved to be a come-from-behind team before so let's hope that the next two games will be different.

The Hutt Fence Bantams jolted the Triple A

Burlington Club 6-0 before a packed arena. Unfortunately the scorers are not available.

As the OMHA teams have travelled around the loop it becomes more and more apparent that the other teams receive more support at home than do the Streetsville boys. If you have not already taken in a game - do so before the end of the year. The boys put on a real good show.

JOY CLUB NEWS

BY Eleanor S. Blake

Four Seniors' Clubs have met since the last column was written, and reports have come to the Roving reporter.

APPLEWOOD - This Club welcomed two new members into their group, and after a short business meeting presided over by President Mrs. Wood, a social hour followed with cards and refreshments served by the U.C.W. Upcoming events for this group include a pot luck supper and a guest speaker.

MALTON Seniors were saddened with the sudden passing of one of their members, Mr. Floyd Archer. Sincere sympathy was extended to Mrs. Archer, daughter Linda and son Ralph. Mrs. Gladys Prior was welcomed as a new member at the last meeting and was declared first prize winner at the Club Bingo game, sharing the winners' circle with Mrs. Varcoe and Mrs. Horan. Secretary Mrs. Dines played several selections on the piano, and refreshments were served by the convenor. COOKSVILLE - Miss Eleanor Blake, the Seniors' Co-ordinator was on hand for the first March meeting of the Cooksville Seniors and presented Mrs. Lucy Turnbull with her Past President's Pin with a few appropriate "words of wisdom". Two new members, Mrs. Skelsey and Mrs. Spicer were introduced

Complete Bridge Programme

Huron Park Recreation Centre is filling out the most complete bridge programme in this area an academic sport that is becoming more and more popular with both sexes of all ages.

The instruction at Huron is under the direction of Mrs. D. Gagan who holds a Goren Teacher's Certificate. Registration is open for instruction for the Spring session of intermediate bridge.

If you wish to brush up on your bridge and learn the most modern method of bidding, this is for you! "Good bridge is fun" is the motto. Instruction is for half or three-quarters of an hour and the rest is playing the game with assistance when necessary. Tuesday is the day - afternoon or evening.

A year ago an enthusiastic intermediate bridge group wanted to keep on playing together so a bridge club was formed - The Mississauga Bridge Club. Novice duplicate bridge was played and attendance increased progressively, the club was affiliated with the American Contract Bridge League. The name "duplicate" simply means that the game is run so that similar hands are played at the different tables and the results tabulated. If you can play bridge, you can play duplicate. Contrary to the general opinion, you don't have to be a good bridge player to play this game, and enjoyment and sociability are the keynotes of the game. Wins Public Speaking Contest

Following in the footsteps paved by her brother Stephen, Wendy Bliss, 14, a grade 8 student at St. Martin's Separate School in Erin-dale, walked away with the Peel Region Public Speaking Contest trophy Sunday at St. John the Fisher School in Bramalea. Wendy's prepared speech was entitled "The Common Cold". Throughout the entire 5-7 minute time limit allowed for speeches, Wendy was composed, articulate and presented excellent delivery on a topic which still has doctors puzzled.

Brother Stephen was Archdiocesan winner in 1966. He is a grade 11 student at Michael Power High School in Ingleton. At the present time he is very busy working with the Ontario Catholic Students' Federation in promoting more Provincial support for Catholic High Schools.

Still to be heard in the Bliss family are Carolyn and James. We are sure that in the not too distant future, we will be reading more about them.

Streetsville Strutters to host Tri-Club novice dance

The Streetsville Strutters Square Dance Club held the regular weekly dance at Ray Underhill School on Friday, March 7. Following a good evening of dancing, an aluminum tray suitably engraved by Mary Gibson, was presented to Jean and Claude Seger who are moving to Windsor at the end of this month. Refreshments were served by Mabel and Geoff Peach.

On Saturday, March 8 eight couples from the Club attended the 'Grad' dance at Downsview Collegiate where their caller Don Sherlock acted as M.C. and called several dances. Anne and Bill Russell hosted a most enjoyable "after party".

Tuesday, March 18 the Streetsville Strutters will act as hosts to Novice Clubs from Guelph and Acton. The callers from the three clubs will get together to present some lively dancing and this should be the "dance of the month" for the Streetsville Strutters.

Next Novice Dance - March 22 at Downsview Collegiate.

Judy Mustill, age 17, has been chosen as this week's "Girl of the Week". She is in Grade 12 at Streetsville Secondary School. After graduation she plans to work in order to earn money to take a Modeling course and then as soon as she is old enough she hopes to become an airline stewardess.

Judy was one of five finalists for Streetsville's Miss UNICEF contest. She is a student council representative and is on the Dance Committee. Photo - STEVE MOORE

Dear Madam:

I have been reading with interest your articles on Regional Government and enclosed herewith is my completed questionnaire.

Although I have lived in these parts for four decades, and have seen many changes take place, I must admit that I was reluctant at first to complete the questionnaire because I know that the tremendous effort that the people at The Review are putting forth is just water down the drain.

I call your attention to Section 14 of the Municipal Act which reads as follows:

".... Upon the application of any municipality or upon the application of the Minister of Municipal Affairs .. the Municipal Board may by order ... amalgamate the municipality with any other municipality or municipalities".

So you see, your efforts are fruitless, unless you arouse the people today with other demonstrations to prove your point. But I wish you much success in your endeavour, anyway.

Dear Ruth:

We were pleased to learn that Billie plays the French Horn in the School Band. How about Sam? Does he accompany him the way your little dog, Termitte, helped your brother Jack? It was just as well we lived on the farm in those days; that petting the neighbors' dogs sent might have had more signatures than just the dogs and cats, re the disturbance. I still have the petition. It was so amusing, Jack Jr. in his room, practicing his trumpet (you remember he was in the bank at T. L. Kennedy) and that scruffy little dog, his head held high, whooping it up, just below the bedroom window.

From March 2 until March 9 is Education Week. How about B.C., is it the same there? I am reminded of my early days in Cooksville School. There were two rooms. We called them the Little Room and the Big Room. We started out in the Primer Book, then First, Second, Third and Fourth, in that order. In the front of the class was a pail of water, brought in fresh each morning. A long handled dipper hung by the pail. If you wanted a drink you raised two fingers, and if you didn't drink all the water in the dipper you poured it back in the pail. We were fortunate that we had a well in the school yard, because when my parents attended that same school, the water was carried from Mrs. Waterhouse's place (on the Four Corners).

The child who disturbed the class was sent to sit on a stool near the water pail. I must say I never felt too thirsty. Ask Alan what he thinks the temptation might be for one seated on the stool near the water pail, and the teacher's back turned. Well

The bell hung in a turret on top of the roof. The first bell rang at 8:30 a.m. Now, remember there were no radios to check the time, and people set their clocks with the whistle from the Port Credit Starch Works. I can remember hurrying to school, from our home on First Line E. (now Cawthra) in order to ring that 8:30 bell, what a thrill!

We took our lunches in honey or Easyfirst lard pails. In winter the school was heated by wood stoves and on cold days we gathered around the stove to keep warm. For the most part of that time we read.

In summer when the school was hot, the boys carried buckets of water to throw on the side plank floors in an effort to cool it. When I first started to school we used slates, and you always carried your little cloth to wash off your slate. Some of the boys would just spit on their, and rub it with their coat sleeves.

In the winter it was a general thing for Mr. Tom Rutledge (who lived where Beacon Square is now, with his horses hitched to the big bobbed, and the bells a-ringing) to pick up all the pupils on First Line and Dundas Street from Cawthra to the Four Corners, and take them to school. He said it was exercise for his horses. On a still morning you could hear him coming, and with "Here comes Mr. Rutledge", we were off on the run to catch him. He would stop, however, for the girls. There was always hay, blankets and the buffalo robe to sit on. The boys would jump off, pelt a snowball or two, and then run for the sleigh again. It was fun!

At recess and noon hour we took our sleighs up to the railroad tracks on Centre Road (#10), (there was no subway then) and we would slide right down past the school to the Four Corners. Some of us, who were told to stay in school because of colds, would be doctored up with Camphorated ice and Eucalyptus oil around our throats, and as consolation we could wave at the tobogganers as they passed the school. When the sledding was good, the teacher would extend the noon hour. There were no cars to worry about and only the odd horse and cutter.

In those days there were no preventative needles for infectious diseases like infantile paralysis, diphtheria, whooping cough, etc. When we were to go out in a crowd, a drop of carbolic acid was put on our scarf so that the disinfectant fumes might ward off infection. When we passed a home which was under quarantine, we were told to hold our breath and not breathe as we passed.

My first teacher at Cooksville School was a Miss Jermyn and we all loved her! I still prize a letter she wrote to me. The one day I passed from the Little Room to the Big Room. We sat down at BIG desks, with a BIG teacher, who pointed to a conglomeration of numbers on the board and in a BIG voice said "DO THAT". Well, I hadn't a clue! To discipline her class, she walked about with a BIG strap, slapping each desk as she passed. With each WHACK, I felt just a little more insignificant. Oh to have been a worm! She kept the aisles clean with her wide skirts, and there was quite a collection of fuzz when she reached the front.

Each morning I could feign the most realistic stomach cramps, and sometimes it worked; but then I had to stay in bed so I wasn't sure which was worse.

The new concept in teaching allows a more relaxed atmosphere. Maybe the future generations will be spared the ulcers their elders suffer, eh? However, that period soon passed and once again Miss Jermyn was my teacher and all was well again. She later married Mr. Rupert Pickett of Cooksville and then we had Mr. George Dyer.

Mr. Dyer had served in World War I and always carried himself as a soldier. He worked tirelessly for his pupils, his church and his community. A successful business man once told me, that having been a pupil of Mr. Dyer, he always felt compelled to follow the good example set out by him and Cooksville was the richer for having known him.

I mentioned that my parents and your grandparents had also attended Cooksville School. In the enclosed picture you will note many familiar names. The teacher, Miss Cavell was a first cousin to Nurse Cavell. You have a book about her. The Cavells came from Erindale. In those days the boys worked on the farms in summer and went to school in winter with the result, there were young men in Public School - and here I recall an incident: One character who was habitually absent, was lead firmly by the arm, up to the school by his partially blind mother. She asked for the teacher. When he appeared, she demanded that the teacher thrash her son soundly.

"But Mrs. his is not your son!"
"Not my son?"
"No this isn't your boy."

PICTURE OF COOKSVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENTS 1893

The Review is certainly indebted to Mrs. Jack Bellegem of Cooksville for the use of this excellent picture of the Old Cooksville Public School students of 1893. The photograph has been exceptionally well preserved and will no doubt be of extreme interest to a large number of area residents. Identification of the various pupils, many of whom are still residing in the area, was made by Mrs. Bellegem's aunt, Miss Jennie Goldthorpe of Dixie. Included in the picture are: Lillian McKee, Matilda Stewart, Elsie Thomas, Carrie Cliff, Louie Brunskill, Sarah Rhine, Mammie Rutledge, Kate Hickey, Maude Readman, Eliza Schiller, Florence Burrell, Sophia McKee, Clara Bull, Blanche Caldwell, Minnie Robinson, Mr. Colman, teacher; Lavina Walterhouse, Helena Pashak, Florence Walterhouse, Minnie Abbs, Hattie Brunskill, Jennie Ezeard, Anna Taylor, Fannie Pinkney, Maude Morris, May Hickey, Anna Johnston, Alma Harris, Lucinda Walterhouse, Louisa Goldthorpe, Frank Crawford, Harry Green, Ed Belford, Walter Morris, Peter

Cooksville School

A buddy had somehow relieved her boy and the errand one was half way up to the railroad tracks, possibly to hitch a ride on a slow freight.

I am pleased you have met Karen. Mary phoned to tell me of their disappointment at not being able to get out to your place on New Year's Eve. She is sure any guests you had would certainly have had to walk! The snow was so deep!

How are your daffodils? The weather report from Vancouver sounds better. We are sorry Phoebe is such a phillanderer, surely her husband has had his trials!

Tell Karen I'm waiting for a letter. I must close now.

With love to all,

Your Mother.

Historical Loyalist House may be yours for the moving

Mississauga Historical Society

A basic Loyalist house, nearly 150 years old, stands on Sheridan Nurseries' land just north of Highway 122 on Winston Churchill Blvd. The land the building is on is needed. Unless the old house is moved off, it will have to be torn down. Anyone interested in living in an early Loyalist house - built before there was any village of Port Credit or at Clarkson - may have this building if they move it to another site.

The house was built by Henry Gable Junior possibly in the early 1820's. His father, Henry Senior, was the first settler to receive a deed for his Crown Land (Lot 35, Concession 3, S.D.S.) in the Clarkson area. The deed was issued in December 1807, after Henry had completed his settler's duties, i.e., cleared five acres of land, cleared one half the road allowance and put up a 16 by 20 abanty. In 1817 Henry Senior granted the northern end of his lot to his son, Henry Junior, who subsequently built the Loyalist house, still standing, for his family.

Lucinda Gable, daughter of Henry Junior, married David Hammond in 1838. When her father died in 1866, Lucinda and David Hammond were left the house and property. For many years, Hammond descendants lived in the house which then became known as the old Hammond Place.

When the Hammond family finally sold the house and land, the historic house was moved off the lot, north across the Town line. Later when the land was bought to build a garage on, the old building was moved a second time, a few hundred feet north to its present site.

Sheridan Nurseries bought the old Hammond house and during the last war used it for a bank house for Japanese families hired by them. Since then the building has been used by families working for the nurseries and kept in repair until a few months ago. Now the land is needed and the historic house must be either moved away or torn down.

Anyone interested in moving this house and using it, call Mrs. Clarkson, 278-9535, for further information.

Lacks and Gaps Discussed

An inventory of all social services available in Peel County was presented to community Service Chairmen of Men's Service Clubs at a meeting held in the Blue Flame Room in Brampton, recently.

Rotary Clubs of Port Credit, Clarkson, Mississauga, Cookville - Dixie and Bramalea, were represented along with an excellent representation from Kiwanis clubs of the area. Mr. Keith Allan represented the Brampton Lions Club, and the Kinsmen had representatives from their Bolton, Bramalea and South Peel Clubs.

Cy Saddington, Chairman of the committee of the Social Planning Division of Peel Community services who prepared the inventory was in charge of the meeting. Other members of the committee present included Len McNeice, Mrs. W. J. Dockman, and Mrs. P. O. Morrow.

Mrs. Dorothy Ross, Planning Associate of Peel Community Services and Mrs. Margaret Arnot, Nursing Supervisor, Peel County Health Unit, were on hand to answer questions.

There was considerable discussion about "Lacks and Gaps" in social welfare in Peel County. Areas mentioned where service clubs might help were: organizing blood donor clinics in collaboration with the local Red Cross Society; assisting the Big Brother movement; giving help with dental care to needy families; and helping to establish a credit counselling service.

Service Club members expressed interest in the establishment of a central information service. Mr. Clare H. Vinnels, executive director of Peel Community Services, discussed ways that his co-ordinating planning and fund raising organization and service clubs might work together.

A GOOD FISH STORY

A naturalist divided an aquarium with a clear glass partition. He put a lousy bass in one section and minnows in the other. The bass would strike every time a minnow approached the glass partition. After three days of fruitless longing, which netted him only bruises, he ceased his efforts and subsided on the food that was dropped in. Then the naturalist removed the glass partition. The minnows swam all around the bass, but he did not strike at a single one. He was thoroughly sold on the idea that business was bad.

Moral - Take another shot at the glass partition. Maybe it isn't there any more.

Rowe-Bannon Vows Exchanged

Applewood United Church was the scene of a candlelit service at 6:00 p.m. February 13, 1969, uniting in marriage Donna Gail Bannon and Jack Rowe, with Rev. James Perry officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Bannon, 84 King St., Cookville and the groom is the son of the late Mrs. Julien Rowe of Atlanta, Georgia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal Princess line gown of white French silk velvet with a long built-in train. The gown was adorned by a high mandarin collar and long bell sleeves, beaded with seed pearls and a fringing of pearl drops. The long mantilla was fashioned of Spanish lace, gracefully scalloped over a white velvet head-piece. She carried a cascade of green orchids and white stephanotis. The bride wore an opal ring belonging to her grandmother, the late Mrs. Milton Bannon.

The attendants, Miss Carolyn Jennings of Port Credit as Maid of Honor and Miss Nancy Poston of Atlanta, Georgia, and Miss Jo Michelle Chamberlaine, Miami, Florida, wore similar formal Renaissance gowns of deep rich forest green velvet with short puffed sleeves and a raised waistline and a square-cut neckline. The accessories they contained could be made by patients as part of the diversional programme, or by groups or individuals wishing to help in the work of the Society.

They carried cascades of green orchids and gold mums to complement their gowns.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Jane Finger of Southampton, Long Island, N.Y. and Miss Kimberley Rowe, New York City. They wore similar gowns as the bridesmaids in a warm gold color with matching head bows and shoes and carried cascades of orchids and gold mums.

Mr. William Mitchell of New York was best man and ushers were Ray Graves, John Wurz, Tom Bannon, brother of the bride, and Hugh McGuinness of Atlanta, Georgia.

The mother of the bride wore a formal dress with matching coat of melon colored peau de sole, beaded with seed pearls and wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The reception was held in the Executive Lounge of the Queen Elizabeth building for 150 guests, who stayed on to enjoy dancing.

For going away, the bride wore a beige crepe dress and jacket with a soft silk white tie and black accessories. The couple stopped off in New York before flying to Mexico City and then on to Acapulco. They will reside in Atlanta, Georgia.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from New York, Miami, Atlanta, Rochester, Fairport, Long Island, Los Angeles as well as many from other parts of Ontario.

Cancer Society plans Campaign for April

Plans for the April campaign of the South Peel Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society are well under way, and Branch Publicity Chairmen and their Committees met last week at the home of Mrs. R. A. Staughton, Unit Publicity Chairman to discuss their role in the campaign.

During campaign time a special effort is made to alert the public to the needs of the Society and the work done in the community by the Society's volunteers. Mrs. Staughton explained that the Cancer Society does not participate in community appeals since 65% of all money raised during campaign goes on research and does not remain in the community in which it is raised. She mentioned the annual Open House to be held at the Princess Margaret Hospital and Lodge on Sunday, March 16 from 1.30 to 4.00 p.m. The public is invited to take advantage of this opportunity to see behind the scenes of this world-famous hospital.

Members of the Service to Patients Committees of the South Peel Unit and Branches of the Canadian Cancer Society were guests at a luncheon held recently at the home of Mrs. E. J. Farkas, Unit Service to Patients Chairman. Assisting the hostess with the refreshments were Mrs. E. C. Shunk and Mrs. H. C. McCallum. Mrs. Farkas welcomed the Unit President, A. P. McNabb to the meeting; and in his remarks Mr. McNabb stressed the importance of the work of the Service to Patients Committee.

Mrs. Art Cummins, Chairman of the Service to Patients Committee for Central Counties District and also President of the Erindale Branch, showed the Service to Patients Gift Kit and Gift Book. The many ingenious and useful articles they contained and

... and repair damaged tissue.
A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly.
It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissues.

One hemorrhoidal case history after another reported
"very striking improvement."
Pain was promptly and gently relieved... actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

Among these case histories were a variety of hemorrhoidal conditions. Relief even occurred in cases of long standing, and most important of all, results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months.

This was accomplished with a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue. Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and sup-pository form called Preparation H.

In addition to actually shrinking hemorrhoids, Preparation H lubricates and makes elimination less painful. It helps prevent infection which is a principal cause of hemor-roids.

Dancers Observe Anniversaries

The Four Corners Square Dance Club held a regular square dance at T. L. Kennedy High School on Saturday, March 8. You would think that after all the goings-on at the Mardi Gras that the club would run out of ideas, but no, a regular dance became an anniversary dance when it was found out by a few knowledgeable members that caller Bert Everett and his wife Helen had an anniversary on that night and that members Ellen and Percy Faulty also were celebrating their anniversary. To top it off Bert also was celebrating a birthday that same day. At intermission when the announcement was made, the lady members took advantage and Bert was pursued from the hall by a bevy of beautiful girls intent on wishing him well. The guest callers were Bill Duncan, Les Burrows and Cec Gordon and they called many interesting new dances.

Friday, March 14 sees the club at Riverside School in Port Credit for FAMILY NIGHT when all the very young and the not so young prove that they too can square dance. March 22 sees FRIENDSHIP and TEEN NIGHT at T. L. Kennedy when members bring their teens and their friends. On March 18, the Four Corners

Square Dance Club will visit with the Cookville Senior Citizens at their St. Patrick's Dance at Cookville United Church. But not the least of the coming events is the grand SPRING DANCE to be held at T. L. Kennedy High School on April 19. The Club hopes that many will join in an evening of fun and frolic.

48th Highland Regiment promises an exciting evening

The 48th Highlanders of Canada will give their audience at Maple Leaf Gardens an opportunity to feel they are themselves a part of the show when they stage the rarest and most ambitious of military pageants, a full-scale Tattoo, on Friday evening, March 28.

Expected to provide one of the highlights of the season is a Mortar Race in which highly trained combat teams will challenge each other over an obstacle course in a display of skill and initiative which will give spectators a chance to cheer "their" team on to victory. The four groups, which have been hard at it for the past weeks getting set for the test, will be identified by their red, blue, green and grey helmets.

The combat demonstrations, there will also be a full-scale "attack" by troops in armoured personnel carriers on an "enemy" lodged somewhere in the vicinity of -- let's say the Detroit blue line) are only part of the varied and colourful program planned for the evening.

Proceeds from the Tattoo will be turned over to the Cancer Society, which will officially launch its 1969 fund raising campaign during the program. All personnel from the regiment will be taking part in the evening's program, with support from a crack team of gymnasts from Royal Military College of Canada in Kingston and the St. Andrew's College Cadet Corps, which has been affiliated with the 48th since 1904. The 48th is the first Canadian military unit either Regular Unit or Reserve Force, ever to stage a Tattoo on its own initiative. Magnitude of the undertaking is indicated by the planning and organization which were necessary for the Canadian Armed Forces Tattoo which thrilled millions during Canada's Centennial Year. The Highlanders and their Commanding Officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Peter A. G. Cameron, CD, are fortunate to have available for advice and guidance one of Canada's few experts on Military Tattoos, Major Ian Piratbrook, CD, who was second-in-command of the Regular Force elements which staged the Centennial Tattoo.

Tickets for the evening, ranging from $3.00 for reds and blues, to $1.00 for greys, will be available as of March 3 from all regular outlets for Maple Leaf Gardens.

'68 peak year for Hydro

Regional government and the power situation in the province were subjects of lively interest discussed by two authorities speaking to municipal hydro officials at the annual meeting of Central Ontario district No. 4 Ontario Municipal Electric Association at Toronto.

Hydro Commissioners and officials from Ajax, Georgetown, Markham, Mississauga, North York, Oakville, Port Credit, Richmond Hill, Scarborough, Stouffville, Toronto, Uxbridge, Woodbridge and the Borough of York, attended the one-day conference.

"1968 will be remembered as the year in which we passed the 10 million kilowatt mark in peak demands. It took 48 years -- 1910 to 1958 -- to reach 5 million kilowatts, but in the next decade it has doubled."

"And if present projections are realized, in another ten years we will have to cope with a demand of 20 million kilowatts," George Gathercole, Chairman of Ontario Hydro, told the delegates.

It was the fourth consecutive year in which the demand has exceeded the long term average. For this period the growth has averaged 8.6 percent, he added.

REGION GOVERNMENT

The principal speaker at the dinner meeting Hon. W. Darcy McKeough, Minister of the Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs, declared that the present municipal structure, designed in 1849 by the Baldwin Act, is as "out-of-date" as the horse-and-buggy society it was designed to serve, and is an anachronism.

"There has to be a change in the structure of municipal government. Things can't go on as they are any longer. And the time to get on with the change is now," he said.

The minister said regional government will be implemented in a controlled and selected manner. He suggested that one of the characteristics of a region normally will be a combination of urban and rural areas. One of the first principles desired in the structure of regional government, he said, would be the traditional principle of "representation by population."

Mr. McKeough said his department does not presently have a specific policy for the future role of hydro electric commissions in the regional government system, and he and his associates are open-minded on the subject, which is the reason for no specific reference to electric utilities in the design for development.

Peel R.N.'s Meet

A regular meeting of the Peel Chapter R.N.A.O. was held Monday, March 3 in the Blue Flame Room, Consumers' Gas Building, Brampton, with Miss Barbara J. Cooper presiding.

Miss Cooper utilized a slide projector to present an overview of the Structure of the R.N.A.O. The members then divided into groups for discussion of the Structure and how they saw the Chapter presently and in the future in this Structure. The needs of the local Chapter were brought forward.

The leaders of the groups were: Nursing, Miss Marion Marshall; Administrator, Mrs. J. Evelyn Danbrook and for Educator, Miss Heather Clarke. The charts to depict the Chapter Standing Committees, as drawn by Mrs. Marion Thomas, Regional Executive Secretary, were of great assistance to the group leaders.

Coffee was served as the discussions continued. The Administrator group formed as a Chapter Standing Committee with Mrs. Mary Bannerman as their chairman and Mrs. Margaret Yates as their co-chairman.

The business concluded with Mrs. Janet Carroll and Mrs. Elizabeth Adams elected as voting delegates to the Annual Meeting, with Mrs. Sylvia Peppers and Mrs. Helen Emmans as alternates and Miss Barbara J. Cooper selected as nominees from the local Chapter to serve on the Board of the College of the Council of Nurses of Ontario.

Info. for Minister

Pleasant Valley Trailer Court, Lakeshore Road E., will be rezoned on May 31, 1969 to permit the property to be used for apartment development.

This will leave mobile home owners in Pleasant Valley without any site to park their homes. They threaten to put them on Lakeshore Road - "if necessary".

Municipal Affairs Minister Darcy McKeough has said to Mississauga Council "I would expect that the Town of Mississauga will continue to pursue the various possibilities of providing for the relocation of those trailers remaining in Pleasant Valley as of May 31, 1969. I would appreciate being kept informed as to what progress and arrangements Council is making in this regard."

PILLS & ALCOHOL JUST DON'T MIX

Do you know that certain drugs do not mix with alcohol, and that the combined effect of taking the two can be dangerous?

The Food and Drug Directorate of the Department of National Health and Welfare warns you:

1. If you are taking a drug for some ailment, be sure to check with your doctor if it is safe for you to drink.

2. If you are planning to have a drink, don't take a pill. If you have been to a party and got home a bit late, skip the sleeping pill you may think you need. Sleeping tablets and drinks are a combination the human body may not be able to tolerate. In fact, deaths have occurred from this very combination. Amphetamines (pep pills), barbiturates (sedatives) and antibiotics are among the drugs that clash with alcohol.

EDUARDO PIMENTEL

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Edwardo Pimentel is one of several bantam basketball players from Streetsville high school, each one of whom could be chosen "Athlete of the Week". Streetsville's bantam team upset highly favoured Erindale and then went on to beat Westwood to bring the coveted bantam championship of Mississauga to Streetsville. Edgardo was one of the main players of the team and in the final game led his team in scoring and was outstanding in rebounding.

"Gardo" plays first base in baseball, defense in hockey and corner-back in football but he looks more like a basketball player no matter what sport he is playing. Just turned 15 years of age and in grade 9, Gardo is already over six feet tall. He should be an important factor in basketball around Streetsville for four more years.

STREETSVILLE-MEADOWVALE HOCKEY LEAGUE

If last Saturday's two previews of games to be played in the "Night of Little Champs" next Saturday night can be used as indicators, the show should be well worth seeing. Two games were played last Saturday between the same two teams that will be competing for their division championship. The finals start at 5.30 p.m. this Saturday. One of the preview games ended in a tie and in the other game the tie was broken with only 5 seconds to play.

Meanwhile Kenton Tasker made it one more new member in the hat-trick club.

PAPERWEIGHT

The paperweight championship preview ended in a 0-0 tie. This made it a perfect 3-game shutout record for Streetsville FLYERS' goal-tender Paul Taylor. At the other end of the ice Mark Holmes' shutout for ELDER PACKING gave him an almost perfect series too, with only one shot eluding him in three games.

The other game was a wide open contest won by STREETSVILLE PHARMACY 4-3. Mike Kalapaca had a goal and 3 assists, two players had 3-point performances, Gary MacRae a goal and two assists, and Tim Glencross 1 and 2. The Markmen for MOORE ELECTRIC were Ken Whitham, Mike Kirby and James Kelly with assists awarded to Whitham, George Araujo and Paul Hendry. But it was little John "Buckaroo" Kelly who stole the show. He assisted on each of the first two goals then engineered the third goal with a masterpiece of cunning. He slyly attracted Pharmacy's goalie into an animated discussion on timely topics in world affairs. Meanwhile his team-mate, brother Jimmy Kelly stealthily deposited the puck in the goal behind the unsuspecting goal-tender.

NOVICE

Kent Tasker's hat-trick put CANADA BRICK in the "Night of Little Champs". Doug Payne added two goals and an assist and Carl Mullally scored from David Warren. Goalie Jim Coates gets the shutout in the 6-0 win over CANADIAN TIRE.

LIONS CLUB also had a shutout on Mike Peria's goal assisted by Frank Araujo and Jim Hogue. It was goal-tender Peter Wicklum who shut out the DOMINION SASH team 1-0. REID MILLING who had already clinched a championship game berth were held to a 3-3 tie by KERR FLOORING. Gary Walker scored twice and David Chadala once for Reid. Daniel Goheen led the Kerr attack with two goals and an assist. Peter Dickey scored the other goal and Warden Jeffery set up one goal.

PEEWEE

Convenor Gord Mac Allister of the Pee-wee division feared it could end up in a division feared it could end up in a 3-team tie so he came armed with all the back statistics that might have been required to settle who gets into the championship game. He didn't need them however and the teams settled it themselves.

ATKINSON INSURANCE made sure they got in by beating MAPLE LODGE FARMS 3-2. Terry McMann scored twice including the winning goal. John Medeiros scored the other and made one assist. Other assists went to Wayne Flood, Mark Reid, Joe Cooper, and Guy Killaby. Pete Lockwood scored for the Farmers and along with Karl Lechler assisted Dave Crawford's goal.

The Maple Lodge Farm team wasn't actually eliminated from the championships until Kiwanis Club won a thriller two games later. The Maple Lodge Farm team probably came the closest of all the 14 teams who have been eliminated. Along with many other boys they must be disappointed as they pack it up for another year. To them and to several other teams such as the bantam Canadian Legion team, it is competition like your teams put up that really makes winning the honour that it is. So keep your heads high boys, you didn't let anybody down.

Over 300 people stayed around to see what would happen when KIWANIS CLUB played the KINSMEN CLUB. The team obliged with a breath-taking game that ended 1-0 for Kiwanis. Roger Jacklin chose a very opportune time to score his first goal of the year while Mike Dyer got the shutout.

In between, Ricky Russell got a 1-0 shut out for CONSUMERS GAS over HOY'S CAFE. Victor Snarr scored the goal unassisted.

BANTAM

It will be ROTARY CLUB versus LONG'S SERVICE CENTRE in the bantam final. On Saturday the same two teams played. Rotary needed the win to join Long's who were already in the "Night of Little Champs". Rotary won it 2-1 on goals by Harry Knibbe from Rod Elsiele and Mike Goheen. Then the climax - a clever tie-in by Gary Gillis on Mike Gahan's long shot with 5 seconds to play. Jim Saliba scored for Long's assisted by Craig Mulkins.

CANADA BRICK TRUCKERS eliminated PEMROW PIPE LINES in a 4-2 win. Keith Flood and Mike MacAllister scored two and assisted one each for the winners. Fred Rutledge had three assists and Andy Bergman one. Jim Kerr scored both Pemrow's goals unassisted.

CANADIAN LEGION closed out with a 4-2 win on goals by Jim Fisher, Bill Martley, Bruce Sparling and Ron Osbourne while Bob McDonnell scored twice for losing ROBINSON'S PHARMACY.

Outstanding House-Leaguers

You will not see any of these days in the "Night of Little Champs" in which the championship of each age division of the Streetsville-Meadowvale Hockey Association will be decided. Each boy was on a team that has already been eliminated but each boy rates very special mention.

BANTAM

BILL MERKLEY was top scorer even though he is a first-year bantam on the Canadian Legion team that narrowly missed out. He was one of the leading scorers all year in his league and his aggressive play was a big factor both in his team's strong offense and its defense which had the best record in his league.

BOB McDONNELL - Bob's team didn't win many games but every time Bob came on the ice his team was a threat. He's a scintillating end-to-end rusher and his deadly slap-shot were always features whenever his Robinson's Pharmacy team played.

PEE WEE

PETER LOCKWOOD - After Peter Lockwood joined the Maple Lodge Farms a little late, the team lost only three out of 15 games. Pete was prolific in scoring and finished with 30 points. He was second only to Glen Mullally. Unfortunately one of those losses was the one that eliminated his team last Saturday.

KARL LECHLER - The coach doesn't expect a boy who is only in his second year of organized hockey to be a star among boys in the pee wee age group (12 and under). But Karl Lechler is a notable exception. In only his second year of hockey he was up with the scoring leaders and in one game scored three goals and had two assists.

NOVICE

DANIEL GOHEEN - Top goal-scorer and point-getter of all teams in all divisions in the 5-game round robin playoffs was Daniel Goheen. He also holds the record for most goals in one game this season, five. Dan's team, Kerr Flooring is out of contention but Dan himself had a good year.

TERRY ANDERSON - A player like Terry Anderson has to be seen in action to be appreciated. Mr. Perpetual Motion was the back-bone and scoring leader of the Canadian Tire hockey team. He scored over half the team's goals besides being the hardest man to get past on defense.

LOCAL BASKETBALL NEWS

If Gordon Graydon High School doesn't win a championship of any kind in the next three years they would still be ahead of the game. But don't bet against them. When they won the senior basketball championship on Friday night, it made it five championships for the school this year in golf, football, cross-country and basketball. In senior and junior competition the school has come out second in the only other two championships even available. They lost in the junior championship football game last fall and they lost in the junior championship basketball game last Friday - but they did make it to the finals in their 8-school conference. So it's been five Junior and Senior championships out of a possible seven, quite a year for head coach Larry Streete and his very capable assistants such as Jon Austin, Arne Pfeiffer, John Logan and others.

SENIOR

The Senior championship game was played before a capacity crowd inside while hundreds of fans were turned away outside of new Erindale high school's gym. The Graydon team trailed the T. L. Kennedy team briefly only once early in the game but were never in trouble and took a four point lead by the end of the first quarter. It was Graydon 13, Rick Klaczka 9 at that point. The Graydon team held Kennedy's Klaczka pointless throughout the second quarter and didn't permit him another field goal until a minute to go in the third quarter. Graydon survived a determined 3-man press and a third quarter rally by the Kougars to win 48-40. Klaczka who amassed 26 points was superb throughout but he didn't get as much support as he needed to stem the tide. A notable exception was Roman Snider who ran miles trying to stop coach Jon Austin's sharpshooters.

The scoring for winning Graydon was divided among eight players and that spelled the difference in the team championship. Rick Clarke was deadly on his long shots, sinking ten points in the first half and totalling 13 for the game. Honest Bob Baasford had 10, Mike Stoyka 9 and Kent Smith 6. Ed Drozdowski, Franko Deme and Brad MacDonald excelled in defence and each of the other team members Walter Morrow, George Beach, Charlie Freeman and Jim Oliver rounded out a strong team that has bench strength that other schools would like to have on their first string.

JUNIOR

Erindale High School is less than a year old but already it has a championship junior team to go along with its bantam football championship they won last fall.

Both Erindale and their victims, Graydon jayhawks started out nervously and the score was only 4-2 for Graydon at the end of the first quarter. Erindale finally got in high gear as Doug Gilpin led the team in a big 15-point second quarter. Barry Smith, too, got untracked and went on to score 15 points to lead the team to a 37-27 victory. Steve Medlar and twin giants named Greg and Garth Keeping also made important contributions in the championship win for coach Walt Jowett.

Phil Marshall played a tremendous game for Graydon and netted over half of their points. He led his jayhawks right to the end as they outscored the winners 8-7 in the final quarter in a valiant effort to catch up.

Streetsville won the bantam championship with a 33-24 win over Westwood on Monday so three different schools go home with one basketball championship each.

THEY'RE LITTLE CHAMPS EACH AND EVERYONE

In the Novice Championship game on Saturday, March 15 during the "Night of Little Champs", Canada Brick got off to a good start by scoring the first goal against Reid Milling. They went on to win the trophy after 9 minutes 59 1/2 seconds of overtime play. Doug Payne captain of the Canada Brick team accepted the trophy on behalf of the team from Clayton Odd. AL BETTS Photo Middle - goalie George Laurencic, alternate captain Harry Knibbe, captain Mike Goheen, Dennis Hayden who came on crutches to the game to encourage his team-mates, and Rod Elsie. Front - Gary Gillis, Brian MacInnis and Mike Roy. Absent for game were Ross Pengilly, and Richard Perras.

Hilary Barnett and Pat Breadman admire the Barbara Ann Scott Trophy which was presented to the Streetsville Figure Skating Club and contemplate how they can best perform on Saturday, March 22 at Family Night so they can claim the trophy for the coming year. AL BETTS Photo

Lionettes Hear Committee Reports

The Streetsville Lionettes held their March 13 meeting at the home of President Jean Honsberger, who conducted the meeting.

A warm welcome was extended to all present by the President and her dog - a beautiful Irish Setter.

After a short business meeting the reports from each committee were heard.

The Retarded Children's Theatre Party on Saturday, March 8 was very much enjoyed but the children missed the usual goodies such as cake and ice cream so were brought back to the home of Marg. Stewart and treated once more.

A delightful letter of thanks was received and read by Norma Dunne from the Greek Boy and his family sponsored by the Lionette Club. The Christmas stockings and clothing arrived February 6, three months after being mailed - a little late for Christmas but very much appreciated.

The Streetsville Bicycle Rodeo on Saturday sponsored by the Police Department and the Lions Club at the Arena on May 10 will have the assistance of the Lionettes.

SENIOR CITIZENS HOUSING ON ITS WAY

Seven and one-half percent per unit will be the cost to the town of Streetsville when the Ontario Housing Corporation erects housing for our senior citizens.

Mr. Van der Woort from the O.H.C. was present at Council to explain the steps which will be taken to initiate a senior citizen housing project.

The first step is to locate a suitable site for such housing. After proposals from builders are received, the project goes to the architect. Upon approval from the Board of Directors it will come to Council for its approval to proceed.

The O.H.C. will obtain loans from the federal and provincial governments whose contributions will be 90% and 10% respectively.

The operating loss of 7 1/2% to the municipality for 20 units will be approximately 4 or 4 1/2 dollars per unit per month - $1,000.00 per year, six hundred of which will be returned to the municipality via realty taxes.

Although Streetsville wishes to proceed immediately "time is difficult to assess", Mr. Van der Woort commented.

Councillor Thomas and Reeve McCallion were concerned with the number of units (20) proposed by O.H.C. since response to the project was not as great as anticipated.

Mr. Van der Woort responded that through past experience in other municipalities he has found that once the units are up there is no difficulty renting them.

He said our older citizens do not wish to commit themselves to a project not knowing what it is going to be like living in these homes.

Council has asked the O.H.C. to proceed with the project for our senior citizens.

LIONS HEAR ABOUT CANADIAN INDIANS

On Thursday evening March 13, at the United Church Hall, the Streetsville Lions held their regular meeting chaired by President Bill Cove. Guest speaker for the assembly was Miss Marilyn Brown, an English teacher at Emory Junior High School in North York, who spoke to the Lions about the Canadian Indians.

Miss Brown was appropriately introduced by fellow teacher Lion Rodger Little, mentioning that the guest speaker attended school in Belleville, then attended Peterborough Teachers' College. She then taught for the Department of Indian Affairs at Kilmat, B.C., working with the Kwakiutl Indians. She has since joined the staff at Emory Junior High.

In her speech, Miss Brown mentioned that there are 132,000 Indians living on 6 million acres of land in Canada. At present 101,000 live on the reserves with the remainder in the cities, etc. The Indian has difficulty adjusting to city life due to the cultural environment. So far, the Federal Government has spent 15 to 20 million dollars on homes for the Canadian Indian with much more to be done. The government should invest more in schools to emphasize the importance of educating the Indian children. The Canadian Indian needs to be praised not degraded. Their problem today is psychological along with being economical. The Federal Government has sent a questionnaire booklet to the Indians entitled, "Choosing a Path". Finally the Indian is being asked what he wants and not being told what he should do. There is no single solution or easy answer to their complex problems.

Lion Paul Roy thanked Miss Brown for an informative and well-prepared speech and presented her with a gift of appreciation.

Poor Communications

Councillor Norm Thomas is not very happy with Council and its administrative way of communications. He wants to have them improved. He said "We are being criticized for lack of follow-up." Decisions of Council, according to Thomas, are not being followed by the administrative body and when they are followed it is usually many weeks later.

The Committee of Council will review the Clerk-Administrator's job to solve communication and administrative problems.

TOO MUCH!

A payment of $5.53 for cold mix was approved for payment to the Canadian Road Asphalts Ltd. Gee! -- I wonder which two holes they filled!

ANOTHER RESIGNATION?

The Chairman of the Committee of Adjustment has been accused of bias and he in turn has written Council a letter of resignation.

Herb Metcalfe, one of the initial members of this committee which is now dealing with the Ray property on Main Street on a division of land request, is the chairman.

The Committee of Adjustment, whose other members are Bill Sharp and Gord Kleinfeldt is a body separate from Council. Its job is to pass judgment on Council's decisions which are being appealed to the committee.

Mayor Graham informed Council that of all the decisions the Committee has made not one has ever been repealed by the Court. In essence showing this Committee is very thorough and just in its decisions.

Council voted unanimously on a vote of confidence for Mr. Metcalfe and his committee and has asked him to withdraw his resignation.

Thank Offering Meeting

The United Church Women will hold a Thank-offering Meeting at 2 p.m. on April 1.

The speaker, Mrs. Vivien Williams will undoubtedly have some interesting stories to tell about the time she accompanied her husband on an archaeological expedition to the Sudan.

Dr. Ronald Williams is a Professor of Oriental Languages at University College.

Don't forget Saturday, March 22 - at 7 p.m. - the Streetsville Figure Skating Family Night.

The price is right - only 49¢ stag and 99¢ drag. And the "drag" ticket is really drag this time. You can drag in the whole family for the one ticket. Everybody bring your skates too as there will be a time when the whole family can get on the ice for a skate.

ALL INVITED

All citizens interested in minor hockey in the Streetsville area are invited to the ANNUAL MEETING of the Streetsville-Meadowdale Minor Hockey Association. The meeting will be held this Sunday, 2 p.m. at the arena hall.

Harold Maynard, proprietor of Mississauga Meats which opens today offers low prices, courtesy and service to shoppers in Streetsville's exclusive Butcher Store. He's right next to the Post Office.

Announce New Healing Substance: Shrinks Piles

Exclusive healing substance proven to shrink hemorrhoids... and repair damaged tissue. A renowned research institute has found a unique healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids painlessly. It relieves itching and discomfort in minutes and speeds up healing of the injured, inflamed tissues. One hemorrhoidal case history after another reported "very striking improvement." Pain was promptly and gently relieved... actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. Among these case histories were a variety of hemorrhoidal conditions. Relief even occurred in cases of long standing, and most important of all, results were so thorough that this improvement was maintained over a period of many months. This was accomplished with a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) which quickly helps heal injured cells and stimulates growth of new tissue. Bio-Dyne is offered in ointment and suppository form called Preparation H. In addition to actually shrinking hemorrhoids, Preparation H lubricates and makes elimination less painful. It helps prevent infection which is a principal cause of hemorrhoids. Just ask your druggist for Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment (with a special applicator). Satisfaction or your money refunded.

In a joint announcement made by Mr. Ed Hannan Toronto Director, and Mr. John Wotherpoon, Chairman of Education for the Oakville Chamber of Commerce, the two men said that the eight week course would be held on 8 consecutive Wednesday evenings in the Board Room of the Chamber and would be open to the public.

Mr. Hannan said that because of the large number of students and business-men living in the Oakville/Clarkson/Port Credit area, it was felt that the course would serve a real need in the community.

Mr. Wotherpoon said the Chamber of Commerce expected that there would be great interest in such a course and that he hoped a permanent Evelyn Wood school could soon be established in the area.

On Thursday, March 20 and Wednesday, March 26, the public will be invited to come to the Chamber to see demonstrations of the course.

the hot water.

Rush hour. Every family has one. When there are dishes to be washed, kids to be tubbed, Dad scrubbing up. Then Sis decides she has to have a shower. It takes a lot of hot water to keep the traffic moving.

That's why you need the Cascade electric water heater—the big producer. It's got the capacity a busy family needs, and it's economical, too. Cascade keeps you in hot water for only pennies a day. Ask your Hydro about the quiet, clean, electric Cascade water heater.

the coming year.

A wage increase of 6 percent is retroactive to April 1, 1968, and Hydro granted a 3 percent raise last August 15 and another 6 1/2 percent is effective next month, April 1.

Improvements to vacations, overtime, hospital plan, health and other benefits are equivalent to an additional 2 1/2 percent of the total wage bill. For instance, Hydro has agreed to increase the Commission's share of health insurance premium subsidy to 80 percent.

Ontario Hydro Chairman George Gathercole, said, "In the days immediately ahead, the Commission's aim will be to ensure that the good-will which has traditionally been a part of management - employee relations at Hydro will prevail."

He said, "Like all strikes, this one was expensive. It was costly to employees in terms of lost wages. It was costly to the Commission in terms of lost power production and the unavoidable deferment of essential maintenance and repairs to the system. All these costs, including the higher wages and benefits resulting from the settlement, will ultimately be paid for by our customers."

"The terms of the new agreement will accelerate the upward trend in the cost of electricity."

Other benefits include improvements in wages in various communities to eliminate zoning differentials in pay rates, over the next two years. Under the agreement "C" zone wage rates will be raised to equal "B" zone effective April 1, 1969; present "B" rates will be raised to "A" zone April 1, 1970 and zoning eliminated April 1, 1971.

These raises will provide an additional 3 percent for those adjusted from "B" to "A" zone and 6 percent for those from "C" to "A" zone.

Full retroactivity on pay applies to wages back to April 1, 1968 plus retroactivity on other monetary benefits still to be determined by the conciliation board chairman.

On the question of job evaluation, both Hydro and the Union have agreed to a joint committee to conduct a complete study. The committee will comprise three representatives from each side with an impartial neutral expert as chairman.

Among other benefits included in the agreement is one concerning overtime. This would give to hourly-rated employees (except construction employees) - double time after first four hours of overtime Monday to Friday.

Double time would be paid Saturdays to trades employees and hydraulic and nuclear operators. Double time for Sundays would be paid weekly-salaried employees.

The new vacation schedule calls for three weeks in fifth year of service; four weeks in 15th year of service; 23 days in 20th year of service and five weeks in 25th year of service. One day's pay will be paid as a vacation bonus for each year of service beyond 25 years to a maximum of five days' pay.

Mr. Gathercole acknowledged the efforts of the Hon. Dalton Bailey, Minister of labour, and W. H. Dickie, Chief Conciliation Officer, in mediating the dispute.

Ontario Manufacturing Show Does $16,000,000 Business

Trade and Development Minister Stanley J. Randall said recently that an estimated $16,000,000 worth of imported components will be purchased in Canada this year as a result of the recent Manufacturing Opportunities Show here, which attracted over 5,000 businessmen.

Although the exact figure is not known, Mr. Randall said most participating firms reported success in finding a Canadian source of manufacture during the three-day show, Feb. 18-20.

Douglas Aircraft Co. of Canada Ltd., Malton, reported that it expects to source an estimated $200,000 worth of components in Canada as a result of the show. This company had 38 different imported components on display, valued at about $1,000,000 on an annual basis.

Avee Enterprises Ltd. of Mississauga, which builds machine vibration dampers, reported to trade and industry officials that an estimated $650,000 of new business will be done as a result of the show, including one firm order for $50,000.

A total of 119 companies and organizations displayed over 20,000 separate imported components for resourcing in Canada. On an annual basis, this represents $64,000,000 worth of components now imported by Canadian firms, most of which are located in Ontario.

In addition, 52 companies displayed about 61 new products available for licensing. And 81 inventors, many of them from Ontario, showed 251 inventions available for manufacture in Canada. Because of a large number of requests for a repeat of the show, Mr. Randall said trade and industry officials in his department will study the possibility of holding a similar Manufacturing Opportunities Show next year or in 1971. Previously, four smaller Manufacturing Opportunities Shows in 1962 and 1963 resulted in orders being placed with Canadian manufacturers for an estimated $26,000,000 worth of imported components.

JOY CLUB NEWS

BY Eleanor S. Blake

LORNE PARK - Forty-five members attended the regular meeting of the Lorne Park Seniors, held in St. Paul's Church Hall on Friday, March 7. All participated in and enjoyed a "Bring and Buy" Sale, followed by a rousing game of bingo. By unanimous vote, Mrs. Skinner (who had celebrated her ninety-fifth birthday the previous week) was made an honorary member of the Lorne Park Club.

LAKEVIEW - At their last meeting the Lakeview Seniors were treated to an especially interesting programme when the Town of Mississauga Hydro-Electric Commission presented a European Travelogue. Mrs. Newlands provided the commentary with Mr. Boyce showing the pictures, and the Seniors found this entertainment to be outstanding. The ladies were delighted to each receive a carnation corsage and the gentlemen a pen, courtesy of Hydro. Following the travelogue a short business meeting and the usual social hour were held. Plans were made for the Club to journey to London on June 9 to be entertained by Labatts. There will be no meeting of the Lakeview Club on Friday, March 21 because of two other commitments for the members during that week.

The Golden Years Senior Citizens' Guild

SCOUT

NEWS

The Peel Central District Scouts Ladies Auxiliary recently held a very successful social evening of dancing to Nick DeRooy and his orchestra at the Galaxy Club, Oakville.

Those attending enjoyed the gala affair immensely and congratulated Mrs. Frances Leiss, Chairman of the social success of the evening.

The music was varied to suit everyone's dancing prowess from modern rock and roll to a dreamy ballad; a fiery tango to a gay waltz, interspersed with novelty numbers and spot dances.

Winners of the spot dances were Laura and Peter Mara, and Ellen and Maurice Munro who received prizes donated by the Natural Gas Company. Many door prizes were given away to the lucky recipients whose numbers were pulled from the box. These were donated by the Carter - Wallace Company. A delicious buffet was served near the conclusion of the dance.

The members of the Ladies Auxiliaries would like to thank all those who attended and supported this worthwhile event, and from the enthusiasm of those in attendance would like to plan for an annual dance in the future.

EDUCATION MINISTER WANTS LARGER CLASSES

The Ontario Secondary School Teachers' re-elected sharply in Toronto recently to an announcement by Education Minister William C. Davis that his department is encouraging school boards to increase class sizes next fall.

President Robert M. Smith, a Burlington teacher on leave for one school year, said that the announcement was completely contrary to all current trends towards a more individualized education.

"This alarms me as a professional teacher and I think that it should also concern parents," he said. "We all favor saving the tax dollar, but robbing the student of a close teacher-pupil relationship is false economy."

The Minister's policy disclosure came just days before the OSSTF planned to release province-wide research detailing how the tightening-up policy is being put into effect.

The research, which will be carried in the OSSTF's publication, Intercom, cites reports of boards which are not replacing resigning teachers and specialists who will be expected to handle greatly expanded classes next fall.

Mr. Davis, who told the House on November 28 that his department had no plans to increase class sizes, said that increasing the pupil-teacher ratio may be one answer to the teacher shortage.

OSSTF spokesmen have forecast a shortage of 2,700 qualified teachers in the fall. This would include 1,300 teachers now in the schools with emergency letters of permission issued by the Department.

"It appears," said Mr. Smith, "that the Department is moving in one direction while the public is convinced that it is going in another. The man-on-the-street reads about the Hall-Dennis report and thinks his children can expect more flexible and creative education."

"But the Minister's statement indicates exactly the opposite trend. And it is probably time for the parent to decide whether or not he wants his child to go to school in a flexible situation or more crowded conditions."

"What particularly worries teachers," Mr. Smith added, "is that schools are being urged to launch expensive innovative programs - computerized instruction and educational television are two examples - while the lid is being placed on costs."

"This means that the savings have to be made in the human area," he said. "And the profession is caught squarely in the middle."

EIGHTEENTH CONTINENTWIDE CHARITY BRIDGE TO BE PLAYED HERE

Bridge players in more than two hundred cities of the United States and Canada will compete with one another, playing the identical set of hands at the same time as they are played at the Spring National Championships of the American Contract Bridge League in Cleveland on Friday, March 21. The game in Oakville will be held at the Trafalgar Duplicate Bridge Club, 1074 South Service Road E., beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Entry fees will benefit the Canadian Charity Foundation, from which monies are granted to worthy charitable organizations. Over the last two years, the Foundation has granted $20,000.00 to the Canadian Cancer Society and $12,000.00 to the Association for Retarded Children. Funds for this year are to be donated to the Ontario Foundation of the Canadian Heart Fund.

In the previous Continentwide Charity Game played in connection with the 1968 Fall Nationals at Coronado, California, nearly 20,000 players took part. The local game here, played at the Trafalgar Duplicate Bridge Club, included nearly 60 players and raised over $110.00. It is hoped that there will be an increase this year.

The coming game, 18th in the League's history, is expected to top the previous record as more and more players realize the fun and excitement of competing in a Continentwide bridge event in which they have a good chance to win the prize for all.

NEW SECRETARY

The new Secretary of the South Peel United of the Canadian Cancer Society is Mrs. Norman Collier, well-known to the members of the Erindale Branch as the Branch Treasurer. She was introduced to the Unit by the Chairman, Mr. A. P. McNabb, at the March meeting.

Mr. McNabb is heading up the April campaign for the Unit, and he told the members that the Unit's quota for 1969 has been set at $42,000.00. "This is a lot of money," he said, "and it will need a lot of effort to raise it - but I am confident we will succeed." The campaign literature to be distributed by the canvassers was discussed and approved. As soon as this is printed, a meeting will be held to prepare the campaign kits.

On behalf of the Cooksville Branch, Mrs. Elsie Sweet presented a carpet sweeper to the Unit for use in the new office.

The urgent need for drivers in the Applewood - Forest Glen area was stressed by Mrs. Andrew Carlyle. Volunteers from other Branches are driving patients from this area to the Princess Margaret Hospital for treatment.

A Letter of Thanks

In the past six months a husband and father of three charming children has given freely of his leisure time to Minor hockey in Streetsville. A great deal of his work has contributed to the efficient operation of the Minor hockey program and most certainly has been a major reason for the success of the Streetsville Novice Thunderbirds of the OMHA and of the Arena Sports Tyke Tournament Team.

I speak of Mr. James Bryant, Treasurer for the SMHA and the Team Manager for both of the above mentioned teams. Both the players and the respective coaches are indebted to this gentleman for his time.

Jim arrives over an hour before game time, transporting all the pants, sticks and sweaters necessary for the encounter that evening. After being assigned a room, he readies the equipment for the boys. As the team arrives his happy voice greets the lads and he assists them with their equipment. About twenty minutes before the warm-up the coach enters the dressing room with the full knowledge that his team is fully dressed, ready to listen to his important chalk talk. It has been Mr. Bryant who has seen to the sharpening of the skates, the taping of the hockey sticks and the game sheet.

As the club exits the dressing room, Jim locks the door and hands the water bottle and the practice puck to the stick boy. During the game he watches with apprehension since it will be he who administers first aid to an injured player. At the conclusion of the game he allows the coaches to review the game with the boys before the drinks and the anxious parents penetrate into the dressing room. About a half hour after the game the dressing room is empty except for Mr. Bryant. A final check is necessary before he leaves to make sure that all has been collected and that nothing has been left behind.

At home in the next couple of evenings Jim will arrange transportation for the boys to the next practice or game-even if it is his own vehicle that will act as the taxi.

Without the services of the many Jim Bryants Minor Hockey in Streetsville would not have the fine reputation that it has earned over the years.

Thank you Mr. James Bryant for helping minor hockey in Streetsville, "AN APPRECIATIVE HOCKEY FAN"

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY TO RAFFLE OFF TRIP TO EXPO 70

Announcing a new pledge of $50,000, Mrs. John Burn asked members of the South Peel Hospital Auxiliary for opinions on the feasibility of a major project to raise funds for hospital equipment in 1969-70. Following a show of hands, the question was - car raffle or trip?

Visions of springtime in the Orient - a cruise through the Greek Isles or a luxurious safari to East Africa, were outlined by Mrs. William Leyland in a report to members at the March meeting, in the hospital.

The vote was unanimous for "EXPO '70" - an exotic three-week trip for two, with 3 day stopovers in Hawaii and Hong Kong. A special brochure will be printed for the Auxiliary and a filmed travelogue on Japan available to convenors through the Mississauga Travel Bureau.

Now is the time to start designing that Japanese kimono you have always wanted! The fame of S.P.H.A. services has spread far it seems. Mrs. H. A. Simmonds, Recording Secretary, read a letter from the Memorial Hospital on the coast of Labrador, asking for details involved in setting up a Baby Photo service, such as the one that functions so successfully at South Peel Hospital. Good Luck Labrador!

In her financial report, Mrs. Walter Campbell noted receipts of $2833.43, which included $200 - Fairview Heights; $155.99 - South Cloverleaf (Pinehaven); $340 - Erindale Woodlands Bridge and Fashion Show; and $650 was received at the meeting from Mrs. T. L. Johnson proceeds from Conference for Women.

Training classes are about to begin in the Gift Shop on the use of the new cash register, which was recently purchased by the Auxiliary. Buyers are needed for several sections.

The intricacies of the Engineering Department of the hospital will be explored and explained by Mr. Baker of the Engineering staff at the Open Meeting to be held in May. The public are cordially invited to attend.

South Peel Hospital Auxiliary will play host to the semi-annual meeting of Region 5 of the Hospital Auxiliaries Association on April 29 at the hospital, when the subject will be "The Importance of Being Informed". While there will only be five delegates from the South Peel Auxiliary, Mrs. H. M. Greene, in announcing plans for the casserole and salad luncheon, asked for many volunteers to assist with the menu planning and hostess service in the Senior Lecture Room.

All members of affiliated Auxiliaries are invited to attend a meeting of the Central West District of the Auxiliary Institute on April 16 at the Holiday Inn in Kitchener. The programme under the direction of Mrs. W. F. McLean, president of the O.H.A.A. will be of special interest to the active volunteer.

Mrs. D. G. Flood, Newsletter convenor, asked for substantial help from members on April 8 or April 15, when SPEAR will be processed for mailing. Telephone Mrs. Flood at 625-0544.

The next meeting of the S.P.H.A. will be on April 10 at the hospital.

The game was played Thursday night before a sell-out crowd and even though the Erindale team, made up of staff members, outnumbered the Diplomats about five to one, they were defeated by a narrow margin.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Some Malton school students recently had a trip to Toronto and the enclosed article, written by a grade six pupil is a report of their trip.

If you could use this for your paper it would be much appreciated.
J. Hicks,
Principal.

Our Tour of Toronto

by Cathy Rogers

"Wow!" Was our trip to Toronto great. On Tuesday, February 25, 1969 grade 5 and 6 from Malton Public School had a tour of Toronto. We departed Malton School by bus at 9.30 a.m. and had a beautiful view on our way.

Our first destination was the Saint Lawrence Market which is a fantastic market of great foods. Inside there was fish, raw meat, and fresh fruit. Everyone glared hungrily at the scrumptious foods. On our tour we saw a stuffed swordfish and a prickly creature called a porcupine fish. As we moved on we came to an experienced butcher slicing open chickens. What a sight for sore eyes!

At 10.30 we left with pleasant smiles on our faces. The next place on our list was the Toronto Dominion Centre which is the tallest building in the British Commonwealth. There were so many windows it was hard to count them. Going in the sliding doors we saw a neat model of the Toronto Dominion Centre itself.

"Going up!"

Up we go in the elevator to the 56 floor. Everybody's ears were popping. When we appeared at the top people were either taking pictures or looking through telescopes. On one side you had a great view of sparkling water. On the bottom floor we saw various kinds of stores. I liked the Paper Store the best because everything was made of paper. Even clothes! After that we ate in the gorgeous cafeteria. It was filled with different varieties of food.

A old-fashioned building by the name of Union Station was our second stop. It wasn't as interesting as our other visits were. As we were exploring we discovered three side stores. Boy, were their souvenirs expensive!

Soon a guide took us on a tour. He showed us a machine that is used for telling about trains. Next he took us to the baggage room. Then we left - thinking of trains.

Our last visit was the Planetarium. On our way there we saw Casa Loma - an old, old castle. We had sort of a recess. When we reached the Planetarium we were early so we took a walk through Yorkville and took a glance at the weird hip-pies. The Planetarium was very interesting and as we were leaving you could just tell that my classmates were thinking of space. When our school came in sight everyone groaned because our great excursion to Toronto was over.

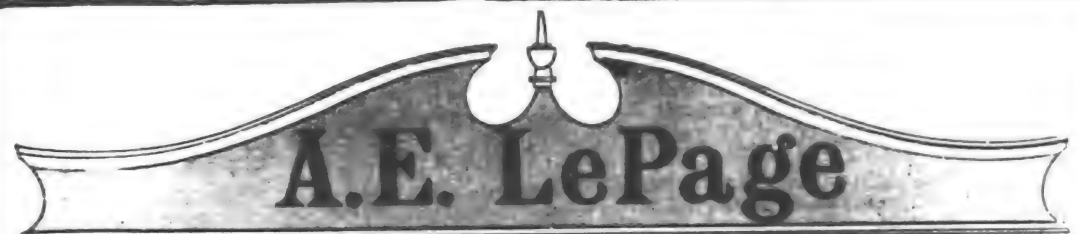

Headline news this week is the Toronto International Square Dance Convention, Royal York Hotel, May 8, 9 and 10, now sold out, with only a waiting list for cancellations. Spectator tickets are now available - few because of the small gallery space, always in great demand. Last year we asked some spectators if they enjoyed watching the dancing or found it boring after a time. They said it was so fascinating they spent several hours, first watching round dancing and listening to Bob Scott's orchestra, then overlooking the huge, colourful spectacle in the Canadian Room, and even peeking into the "challenge" room where expert callers and dancers worked out fast new routines. Needless to say they won't be spectators this year, but part of the enthusiastic crowd of dancers on the floor!

The Convention Committee, headed by Ruth Oakes of Burlington, is happy to announce that John Fisher will officially open the Convention on Thursday evening. John Fisher has been speaking for Canada for many years, in every corner of the continent and abroad, and is surely the best-known Canadian of this century. He is a friend and patron of Canadian square dancing and, as Director of the Centennial Commission, promoted the famous Trans-Canada Centennial Train which took square dancers on a coast-to-coast friendship tour in 1967. Nina Ward, Publicity Director for the convention, says the committee, as well as staff and dancers, is proud to have "Mr Canada" himself to open our convention. We predict he'll have more pretty partners than any other "swinger" you could mention!

Teachers and leaders in this year's convention include the most expert choreographers on this continent. Round Dance leaders: The Billards of Washington (also on staff of Square 'N' Round-Up, Labour Day); and the High-burgers of Texas. Calling for square dancing are: May Forsyth, Indiana; Frank Lane, Colorado; John Leclair, Wyoming; Bob Yerling-ton, Iowa; John Hendron, Mass. These popular leaders must be booked years in advance, and Toronto and District S/D Association is particularly proud of its staff this year. Two local leaders, also experts in the field, Stu Robertson, Burlington, and Tom Trainor, Rochester, complete the staff which, with the assistance of many local leaders, will provide continuous dancing at various levels during these three days and evenings in May.

A Letter From Home

By a Member of the Mississauga Historical Society

Dear Ruth:

We half expected to see you and Bill here for the Curling Tournament, in fact, once we were sure we caught a glimpse of Bill's blonde head.

I am not sure whether I mentioned before, about the very pleasant evening we spent at Huron Park as guests, January 31st at the Mississauga Hockey League President's Night? It must be gratifying to see that the league, that they laboured hard to get started, is in such capable hands now. We thought it a big thing in 1952, when over 50 teams were entered; but now over 3600 youngsters have organized hockey in Mississauga. This reminds me, Caye Killaby asked for you, and wished to be remembered to you.

When you come East again, you will find many changes.

"The old CROFTON VILLA, which in early days was called the SHEPPARD PLACE, has disappeared completely with not even a familiar trace;

The old nine trees and the picket fence are gone, and the lot is bare. And friends we've known from other years are no longer there. Mrs. GILL'S STORE at the corner of the Second Line and number FIVE

A cream pitcher and soup tureen given to Louisa (Goldthorp) Belford, by Mrs. Langdon, two pieces of several "just for every day use". Now prized by Louisa's daughter, Mildred Belford.

Has been replaced and in its stead A "Chicken Villa" seems to thrive.

The old landmarks of other years have all but been erased. And the dreams I had of them today Appear as dreams misplaced. But I can still recall the days that used to be, And once again in my hometown, I live in memory."

How do you like my poetry? But seriously, while I think Mississauga is a pretty name, I find myself still writing COOKSVILLE, that name has been around a long time.

You know the gold locket that I treasure so much, was given to me by Mrs. Langdon, daughter of Jacob Cook, founder of Cooksville. When I knew Mrs. Langdon, she lived with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George McClelland, in their beautiful home on the Centre Road, where Dr. Sawyer's Clinic is now. She was a delightful person, and could tell many stories of Cooksville in early days. The whole of Toronto Township was dense forest, and Dundas St. a boggy trail, and there were no bridges over the streams, and of course no drainage. What an ordeal it must have been for her father to carry the mail in that day. Jacob Cook inaugurated and continued for twenty-eight years, a system of mail routes, which would be quite an undertaking even today.

Under contract to the Government he carried mail to Kingston, Toronto, Ancaster, Queens- ton, Niagara, Brantford, London, Galt, Preston and Goderich as well as Cheltenham, Georgetown and Cooksville. I can just picture those heavy wheels of the old stage-coaches sinking into the bog-holes!

But the mail had to go through, and "Get- There-Cook" was the boy who could do it! Sometimes, at the end of each route, the ice had to be cut from around the stirrups where his feet rested. It is this courage and fortitude of Jacob Cook and others like him, who have made the Town of Mississauga possible.

I recall during World War I, going with my aunts to Red Cross meetings at the McClelland home. Mrs. McClelland (Jacob Cook's grand-daughter) was the President and Mr. McClelland was the Treasurer of the Society. Over thirty boys had gone from the Cooksville area, and each packing day saw forty to fifty parcels sent off to them, with love and best wishes. And my tiny hands helped to roll bandages too.

On a pleasant summer day in 1926, my mother and I were present at Mrs. Langdon's one-hundredth birthday party and all Cooksville celebrated.

As I mentioned earlier, the old store at Dixie is gone, and a Chicken Villa is in its place. Mrs. Gill was a dearly loved postmistress, as well as store-keeper. I remember once, seeing her hop down from her stool to go to the phone to tell dear Col. Thomas Kennedy M.P. that he had a card there from his sister in Regina; then she would read it to him. "It's no bother" she would say. Once when interviewed, Mrs. Gill told a reporter "The mail in the early days was carried from Burnhamthorpe down to the Dundas Road by a man each day to meet the mail coach, and the service for that village was faster than it is now". Burnhamthorpe was called "Puggy Huddle" because of the muddy state of the roads in that district.

I am indebted to Cousin Hazel Belford Cook-well for this picture of old Cooksville Post Office. This building was apparently at the corner of Cook and Dundas St. Then during World War I the old building was moved back and a new post office was built (now Dr. Leske's office). During the early twenties the post office was moved to Copeland's Store, South east corner of Dundas and Centre roads (that building still stands). I have been told that this old building also still stands on the southeast corner of Cook and Agnes Streets.

A friend of mine showed me a letter written in 1845, before the days of envelopes and stamps as we know them. The pages are folded over and sealed with sealing wax. The address on the back is cancelled out with a cork stamp. All the members of the family had their little say, and the contents would indicate that they had their Peyton Place even in those days. When I asked what means of transportation might have been used - pony express or stage coach, she replied "Or maybe the village tinker!"

Jean-Ann spoke up "Now, what pray tell is a tinker?"

Well, my dears, on that note I close.

With love to all,

Your Mother.

THE CANADIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Canadian Red Cross Society National Blood Transfusion Service, which is perhaps the most important of its many services, grew out of the experience gained during World War II, and was established in Canada in 1947. This unique service is responsible for providing whole blood and blood products in Canadian hospitals from coast-to-coast. New surgical techniques create more uses for blood every day, and over one million voluntary donations will be needed to meet this year's hospital requirements. Why don't you become a regular donor. Your help is urgently needed.

March is Red Cross Month in Canada and it is time to salute those who contribute so much to the health and welfare of the people of Mississauga and Streetsville

KENTON TASKER

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Little Champs Night at Streetsville arena was packed with tense, thrilling action but the most electrifying of all the whole evening's action was Kenton Tasker's goal. His Canada Brick Novice team was tied with the Reid Milling team at the end of the regulation time. A sudden-death overtime period was necessary to decide the championships. Tenston mounted as each team was thwarted time after time. With only a few seconds to go Kent took the puck at centre ice, beat one defenseman, and as hundreds of frenzied fans stood up shrieking, he coolly picked the corner of the net, scoring two seconds before the final buzzer would have sounded.

It was a fine season's climax for Kenton who has been outstanding for his team all year, especially in the playoffs when he scored seven goals in five games. He has beaten the opposing goal-tender twenty-four times altogether in SMHA activity this winter.

Kent got his share of goals playing for the Kinsmen Olympics in lacrosse last summer too. He is 9 years old and still has another year of novice eligibility left. He has been chosen to play for the Hore Bros. Arena Sports hockey team which will represent Streetsville in the second annual Streetsville Tyke Tournament next month against teams from all over Ontario.

NIGHT OF LITTLE CHAMPS

Two exhibition games and four championship games rang down the curtain on what was probably the most successful and certainly one of the most exciting hockey seasons ever played in Streetsville. Joe Vella, the man who has worked the hardest for the Streetsville-Meadowdale Hockey leagues this winter was pleased that all games terminated in close scores, indicating keen competition between well-balanced teams that has seen the rule all winter. But the happiest boys were those on the teams that carried home the trophies in four divisions.

PAPERWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WM. BROWNDRIDGE TROPHY - Lowest scoring game of the evening was the Paperweight championship in which the Elder Packing shut out the Streetsville Flyers (sponsored by Evans' Smoke Shop). The game was scoreless until Geoff Blackwell and Robbie Trimble combined with less than two minutes to go in the first period. Geoff was the one who put the puck in the net but that was the only goal of the game for him or anybody else. The two paperweight goalies Mark Holmes of the winners and Paul Taylor of the losers have been just about invincible all winter. Including all regular schedule games and playoffs they both have phenomenal goals-against records. In 18 games Mark's is exactly 1.00 goals against per game while Paul's is close at 1.17.

PAPERWEIGHT - ELDER PACKERS Other members of the championship paperweight team include Paul Adamthwaite, Brian Anderson, Geoff Blackwell, Ross Carnner, Joe Cook, Robert Humphreys, Gary Rion Ledoux, Mark Ledham, Scott Morrison, Mark Mullally, Donald Thompson, Robbie Trimble and Scott Lewis. Coaches were Roy Hughes and Larry Ledoux.

NOVICE CHAMPIONSHIP FOR BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA TROPHY - The most dramatic event of the "Night of Little Champs" was the Novice Final. Canada Brick scored first when Doug Payne cashed in on Ricky Very's pass late in the first period. Canada Brick held a slight edge in play up to that point. In the second period it was just the reverse. Coach Zig Chadala's Reid Milling team had a slight territorial edge and after a long determined attack Gary Walker hit the target at the 15-minute mark. David Chadala assisted. Each team had several chances but the goal-tenders Jim Coates for Brick and Howard Martin of Reid were both superb and turned back their assailants repeatedly. Martin in particular could be charged with grand larceny as he robbed Payne, Very and Kent Tasker all on shots that appeared to be sure goals. The Reid Milling team led by Chadala, Walker, Zardo and David Odd were also repulsed again and again, by a stout defense led by Carl Mullally and Robert Evans.

The score stood at 1-1 at the end of regulation play and a ten-minute sudden-death overtime period was ruled. With two seconds to go in the overtime it was Kenton Tasker who took a pass from very and won the game for Canada Brick.

NOVICE - CANADA BRICK Team members of the championship Novice hockey team in SMHA, captain Doug Payne, Barry Arsenault, Peter Boonstra Jim Coates, Doug Dunlop, Robert Evans, Bob Freeman, Ronny Hubbard, John Lillie Steve Metcalf, Carl Mullally, Mike Parker, Kenton Tasker, Ricky Very, and David Warren. Coaches were Ross Tasker and Ron Payne.

PEEWEE CHAMPIONSHIP FOR CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE TROPHY -

The Pee wee championship was a triumph for a team that started the season by winning only one of their first four league games. The Atkinson Insurance Pee wees kept right on improving and after just a 300 regular schedule, they were actually the top team in a close 3-team fight in the playoffs. Their 3-1 win over Kiwanis Club might be considered an upset except that this team had just reached its peak at playoff time and piled up an impressive 16 goals for and only 5 against in five previous playoff games.

All the scoring was done in the first period, Steve Peria batted in Terry McMann's high shot right out of the air to beat a surprised Kiwanis goalie Mike Dyer. Adrian Lazenby also assisted on the play. The lead was short-lived, however, and two minutes later Glen Mullally received a pass from team-mate Jeff Pritchard and with long strides out-distanced two pursuers and beat Atkinson goal-tender Mark Odd cleanly. Mullally's goal was a demonstration of his class that has made him top goal scorer and point getter in the peewees this season.

It was team captain Wayne Flood who scored the winner when he combined with Peria on a power play. Then before the period ended Terry McMann stickhandled all the way in from centre ice and scored. That was the final goal of the game as both teams' defense were able to hold out for the rest of the game and Atkinson Insurance emerged the champs by a 3-1 score.

BANTAM CHAMPIONSHIP FOR TORONTO-DOMINION BANK TROPHY Bantam champions Rotary Club and their opponents Long's Service Centre had played four games previously this winter. The teams had won two each, the total goals scored by each team was identical and every game was won by one goal. With this history, the final game of the "Night of Little Champs" was a natural.

Long's took an early lead as Gary Robinson broke through and beat goalie George Laurencic assisted by Rick Rigby and Doug Davison. Long's, coached by Gary Waddell, put up a stout defense and held their one-goal lead until near the half way mark of the last period when Mike Goheen of Rotary passed to Mark Gahan at the blue line. Gahan fired a hard high one which goal-tender Ralph Petch handled but John Knibbe gobbled up the rebound and out Rotary back in the game.

A line change brought on an inspired Rotary lineup that scored again a minute later. Gary Gillis and Jamie Rowe fought for the puck in the corner and centred it out to Mike Roy who scored the winning goal. Three minutes later Mike Goheen soloed in from centre ice to clinch the game. Rotary's defense of Gahan, Rod Elsiele and Harry Knibbe played brilliantly as did Brian MacInnis and Rotary took command for the final five minutes to win 3-1 for coach Nick Elsiele.

Michael Goheen's solo dash was a fitting climax to a good season for the first-year bantam. The Rotary team captain led the league in pre-season exhibition game scoring, again he led in the regular season, again in the playoffs and his two points in the championship game even made him leading scorer in that game.

An oddity of the Novice game was the fact that Kenton Tasker would likely have won the game even if he had not scored. If the score at the end of the overtime had still been tied, the winner was to be declared as the team that had made the most shots on goal. At the time of Kent's shot the teams were exactly even on shots. His try would have been the final play of the game and his shot would have decided the issue unless it missed the goal completely. Both coaches and all the officials must have felt a bit relieved that the championship was decided on a goal rather than on statistics.

Long's Service Centre have lost only three games since January 1 but unfortunately for them, all three losses have been to Rotary.

by IRENE GABON

He Smokes It-Because He Likes It

Bill J. was what one might call an average teenager, a good student with an independent determination to "make something of himself". He had an after-school job delivering prescriptions and other items, for the local druggist. He was an active boy scout, participated in most of the extra-curricular activities at his high school and was considered a young man who had "both feet on the ground". His family had very closely knit ties; they worked together, shared many pleasures together and prayed together. Today, 4 years later, Bill sits in his room, flanked with pop artists pictures, psychedelic drawings and waits for April. For in April, Bill has to appear in court - he has been charged with possession of marijuana.

"Things were alright," he recalls, until we moved from our modest but comfortable Kingsway home, four years ago. "The change was tremendous. In the city one had access to transportation, which could take you to school, to libraries, to public parks, stadiums for sports events. The nearby churches always had something going for the young people."

A promotion in his father's job is what influenced the move to the suburbs. "Suddenly everything changed. From a modest 21,000 house, we moved up to a $45,000.00 house. I can remember my dad saying that the move was 'for the children - to give them the things we never had'."

Bill's parents, products of the great Depression, when everybody was in the same boat, suddenly found themselves engulfed in an environment where no one was equal, but everyone was just a whole lot better than everyone else.

"I can remember my mother saying to a neighbour that she had paid $1,000.00 for a new sofa when in fact, it cost exactly $399.00 and it was purchased from Eaton's sale catalogue, not from Eaton's College 5th Floor Fine Furniture Department." "Dad played the role too. He applied for membership at one of the clubs and was accepted. With his new job taking up more and more of his time, plus his social conveniences, it left very little time for him to spend with his growing son."

"No, I am not being super-sensitive. In this age of split molecules, atoms and automation, I am aware that he is faced with many pressures and time for relaxation is an absolute necessity, in his case."

"A child's basic needs involve constant communication with his parents, whether he be 5 or 15. I found that after a while my parents were so hung up on playing the role of 'well-off' people in the neighbourhood, that it left very little time for me. I had access to the family car, and loads of money to spend (I always felt guilty about taking it, not having earned any of it)". Bill found on many important occasions (to him) such as school programs, inter-school competitions, etc. the failure of his parents in showing up for the event. "You start to lose confidence in yourself after awhile when the two most important people in your life, fail you and fail to support your efforts."

Bill J. is not an aggressive youth. "I attended several youth programs and found the membership very cold to an outsider, so I dropped out."

Bill can't recall when he first smoked pot. "It was at a party - things were boring, when someone suggested we go downstairs to try something new. I first tried it, just out of curiosity, then after continued use, I began to enjoy it. If you asked me why I smoke pot, I would say because under its influence, I like the world it presents to me. Nothing is mixed-up in the world of pot, as it is in reality. You might compare its effects on the human to the pop music of today - both loud and clear."

"There is great unrest in the youth of today because of the dictating pressure of society. The media in its effort to convey messages to the world, warps your mind when they print pictures of children killed in war; actual real-life bloody murder pasted all over the front pages. They knock this government down, while bolstering another up; they go to great lengths in publicizing the evil that is happening all over the world. And here I sit, an impressionable 17-year old, thinking 'this is real, this is happening now'. And subsequently 'it could happen to me, now!'"

Bill admits that he first smoked pot because he was curious. He continued to smoke it because he could afford it, and it in turn afforded him the escape from the reality of an environment which he didn't like, he didn't ask for, and he didn't want.

"Somehow, I feel that our only salvation is to return to basic simple moral codes. Someone, somewhere, has to lay down the law. When immorality occurs, two people who have been close, are suddenly drawn further apart."

Far too much time is spent, Bill feels, watching the big black or coloured TV box. "That time could be used more constructively - people don't even make simple repairs to their homes anymore, they call a service-man in."

"The other solution would be to return to the Church. Somehow, the guidance for a straight life with good values will be found there. I have missed the Sunday services, because my parents only go to church when dad gets a new car or mother a new wardrobe."

"The living today, really mixes you up. You do what you want, go where you want, say what you like, pretend if you like and where does it all end? It seems to me that we are reenacting the days of Sodom and Gomorrah."

"Or as the commercials out it - 'I smoke it because I like it!'"

Tri-County hockey roundup

T. BIRDS ADVANCE TO ZONE CHAMPION FINALS

Down a game, win two straight at home to win the semi-finals of the zone championship round. That was the story in OMHA hockey last week as the Streetsville Novice Thunderbirds came back from a first game 5-0 drubbing in Paris to win in thrilling fashion by scores of 3-0 and 4-1.

There was excitement at its best in the Tuesday night match as the first two periods remained scoreless. The goalkeepers and defence for both teams were outstanding. Finally, to the sheer delight of the home team Scott Snarr scored on a pass from Rob Flack. Ing from such an exciting close encounter, Rob Flack broke the game wide open with a breakaway resulting from his charge check of a Paris defenceman. Rob made no mistake as he drilled a bullet past the Paris netminder. With the game in the bag, big lumbering Randy Johnston wheeled down the ice and set up Dennis Varga for the final score of the game. This was a game that featured a trio of very solid defence work by the greatly improved Randy Johnston, Jeff Very and Boom Boom Bryant. Earning a well-deserved third playoff shutout was Ricky Russell.

In the final and deciding game the interest of the Streetsville fans was at an all time high for this all important game. The fans poured into the arena and a packed house witnessed one of the best Thunderbird team efforts of the year as they struck early in the game for a quick two goal bulge that was never erased by the Paris team. Scott Snarr playing with a blackeye and three stitches as a result of Tuesday's encounter was instrumental in setting up three fine goals. Within seconds Marc Sinclair scored unassisted to earn his three game winning goal in the play-offs to date. The T-Birds never looked back as they outkicked and traded solid bodychecks with the Paris lads. Randy Johnston played a standout game on defence as he cleared the puck well and was responsible in breaking up many a Paris rush. In addition to the rugged Randy, exceptional defensive help came from the powerful Len Bryant and Jeff Very. These three boys make up a defensive unit equal to any in OMHA. Upright the forechecking and penalty killing of Marc Sinclair, Scott Snarr and Rob Flack was amazing. It was Scott

Marc combining for the third score as Scott shot the puck in, chased after it and relayed to Marc standing off to one side of the net and slightly behind the cage. Marc's passout eluded the goalkeeper and slipped between his skates for Marc's second goal of the night. The height of the team effort came after Paris had scored their only tally against the superlative Ricky Russell when Scott Snarr unselfishly passed the puck ahead to Rob Flack, giving Rob the opportunity to score. Rob drilled a perfect low shot to the right-hand corner of the goal to finish the scoring for the evening.

The people of Streetsville can be very proud of all the teams in the OMHA this year and if the playoff action is any indication of the action to come in the years ahead the fans in Streetsville are in for some fine action. We wish to congratulate the Thunderbirds for their victories and wish them continued success against the winners of Torold or Grimsby in the Zone Championships which should begin in about ten days.

All About Conservation

ORANGEVILLE RESERVOIR - Construction work on the Orangeville dam and reservoir was substantially completed by the end of 1968, the Resources Manager, S. B. White, told the Credit Valley Conservation Authority members at the annual meeting recently. There is some minor clean-up work to be finished after the frost leaves the ground this spring. When full, the reservoir will cover 460 acres and hold 164 million gallons of water. An overall plan will be made of the area after water height and amount to be released has been established.

FAIRY LAKE - The dredging project at Fairy Lake, Acton, a pilot project for the Province of Ontario, will be completed early in 1969. Begun in 1967 the dredging has taken out of the lake bottom approximately 275,000 cubic yards of silt since the project began. If this plan is economically feasible, many more small reservoirs, silted over the years, may be dredged for water storage again.

CALEDON TOWNSHIP - An erosion-control project was completed this year in the village of Melville in Caledon Township. Rock-filled gabion baskets will protect the river bank and the cost was shared by the Township and the adjoining land owners along with the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

GLEN WILLIAMS CHANNEL - The first phase of a channel improvement project to provide flood protection to the village of Glen Williams was completed in 1968 by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority. The work included the relocation of 1,000 feet of river channel to eliminate a sharp bend in the river which was the cause of serious ice jamming and flooding in past springs.

ERINDALE EROSION CONTROL - Preliminary engineering was completed for the stabilization of the high bank of the river in the Erindale Woodlands area of Mississauga. Tender documents and working drawings are now completed, work should progress in the near future. The Town of Mississauga is the major benefitting municipality and the eight adjoining land owners will contribute to the cost of the project along with the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

THUNDERBIRDS WIN ZONE CHAMPIONSHIP

by Barry Sinclair

The Thunderbirds wrote the final chapter in their hockey book Monday evening at Thorold for the 1968-69 season as they turned back Thorold 4-2 to win the series two games straight. The boys travelled by bus with a throng of supporters and still many others made the trip by car. The Thunderbirds responded to the support by coming back from an early Thorold 1-0 lead. It was Randy Johnston, playing with two stitches in his sore upper lip that billeted a slapshot from his left point to tie the game at 1-1. From that point on the Thunderbirds applied the pressure until the Scooter Line put them ahead. Dennis Varga playing one of his best games of the season was instrumental in starting the play as he carried the puck into the Thorold end, passed to right winger Marc Sinclair who in turn relayed the puck to Paul Flack and he shovelled it past the sprawling goalkeeper.

With the score 2-1 at the end of the second period the Thunderbirds struck early in the third frame as once again Randy Johnston went to work. Carrying the puck out of his own end Randy spotted Scott Snarr free. The smooth centre relayed a pass to Captain Robble Flack and Rob directed the pass through the legs of the surprised goalkeeper. The Thorold goalkeeper had the forwards turning cartwheels as they attempted to penetrate his guarded area. Dennis Varga, David Thomson, Dwayne Hamilton and the Streetsville captain were foiled many times by glove saves. Thorold closed the gap to a one-goal deficit only to have Robble Flack fire a low shot that was deflected by a Thorold player to put the game out of reach. Mr. Playmaker, Scott Snarr earned his second assist of the game. Once again Ricky Russell played good standup hockey and got the important defensive help from Jeff Very and Len Bryant.

THUNDERBIRDS 3 THOROLD 1

The first game of the Zone Championship Final was played at Streetsville Arena, Saturday, March 22. Despite the 5 o'clock playing time a fine crowd of hat toting Thunderbird fans wearing chapeaux, commitments of the famous designer Madame Crawford, were on hand to witness a game that saw the T-Birds dominate play.

The score was not indicative of the play as the Thorold opposition could only muster two shots in the entire game on goalkeeper Ricky Russell. At the other end of the rink the Thorold goalkeeper was magnificent and was solely responsible for the close score. The Thunderbirds were thwarted at times by the very tight game called by the referees. Actually most people felt that the referees had spoiled the game by calling penalties that were really not necessary. What the referees did do was to slow the game to a walk and virtually take any contact whatsoever out of the game.

Boom Boom Len Bryant, Jeff Very and Randy Johnston, who has to be rated as the most improved player on the Thunderbird squad, were particularly effective at carrying the puck on some exciting end to end rushes. All three had some glorious scoring opportunities but simply could not get the puck past the crafty Thorold netminder.

The line of David Thomson, Scott Snarr and Robble Flack accounted for the first and second goals. The combination of Scott Snarr and Robble Flack has become a familiar phrase over the past six weeks as the Thunderbird attack has featured the fine playmaking of Scott Snarr. Scott set up both Captain Robble Flack's scores. The two goals for the Thunderbird captain put his season total at 50. The Thorold team finally got on the score sheet as a result of a fine breakaway goal. The Thorold player made no mistake as he calmly deked goalkeeper Ricky Russell for the score. The Thorold team was ineffective throughout most of the game, even with a two man advantage on several occasions. Paul Flack, Marc Sinclair, Scott Snarr and Robble Flack killed all the penalties with relative ease.

At the end of the second period the score was 2-1. The only goal of the third period was a classic effort - Len Bryant lugged the puck to centre, passed to centre Paul Flack who broke in alone with a trailing Marc Sinclair. Paul pulled the goalkeeper to one side and coolly slid the puck across to Marc Sinclair who tapped the puck into the wide open corner to complete a well executed effort.

The people of the Streetsville Minor Hockey Association must be very proud of the accomplishments that have been made in OMHA in this their very first year. The Thunderbirds are prime examples of what can be accomplished by many hours of hard practices and a sincere effort to put the team's accomplishments ahead of any individual accomplishments. It was very clear that the team came first with the young T-Birds as they featured an unselfish passing attack. Good Luck in the Years Ahead, Boys.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Thank you Mr. Sinclair for your faithful weekly report on Tri-Hockey and Thunderbirds hockey happenings. Mr. Sinclair is the coach of the Thunderbirds and is also principal at Russell Langmaid Senior Public School.

Enter Homes

Six of the model homes in the Markborough development were entered last week end - and the culprits left little foot prints in the

Lightning Struck Once --- And That's Enough

Lightning struck last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lasby, 13 Ellesboro Drive.

Fire Chief Burns reports no fire but extensive damage was done when lightning struck the T.V. antenna causing a small hole in the roof and then travelling through the house destroying the thermostat and electrical outlets.

The second fire alarm was a false alarm from Ray Underhill Public School probably triggered by the lightning.

Something different in hockey

The Legion Lads are using the ice time to help raise money for team jackets.

REMEMBER - 5 p.m. Saturday, March 29. Adult admission 50¢; Children 25¢. Come on out and enjoy a game of hockey with a difference.

Bracebridge fine hosts to Tri-County teams

by Barry Sinclair

The IGA Pee-wee, Hutt Fence Bantams and Juvenile Derbys travelled to Bracebridge for two weekend games each. All of the boys were billeted and returned overjoyed with their performance and appreciation of the fine hospitality of the Bracebridge people. This certainly is one of the incentives and rewards for boys in the House League who graduate to the OMHA rep teams.

The IGA team laced the Bracebridge lads by scores of 7-1 and 8-2 while the Bantams were involved in a couple of high scoring victories. Scores were 13-11 and 7-5. Unfortunately the Derbys became overwhelmed by the hospitality and bowed 6-2 and 7-6.

Scorers for IGA included Dan Crawford and Dave Very with 4 apiece, with Ray Kulpers firing 2 and singles by Laurie Kemp, Paul Vella, Chris Gruenwald, Greg Perta and Dave Baldwin.

In the Bantam scoring spree Doug Cove went wild firing 8 times with Shaun O'Connor knocking 4, Dave Rollings 3 big ones and Joe Mora a pair and singles to Fred Arseneault, Robert Chadala and Eric Ross.

The big scorers for the Juvenile Derbys were Daryl Kack, Glen MacPherson, John Crawford and Dave Lyons who each scored two goals apiece.

If you have the opportunity to take in the return games this Saturday and Sunday you will see some good hockey as our boys play host to Bracebridge.

Seniors enjoy Irish songs

The Streetsville Seniors held their regular meeting Wednesday, March 19 in Trinity Church Hall. After the business was taken care of, members adjourned to enjoy an evening of entertainment.

Mrs. J. Dalgleish with Mrs. Roy Coates as accompanist presented some lovely classical Irish songs - and some of the Seniors were able to join in singing these old favorites. Mrs. J. B. Leech, who with her husband served in the missionary field in India entertained with a number of beautiful coloured slides of Nepal, etc. and narrated as the slides were shown. She also had a display of many objects, and the dress of parts of India.

Refreshments were served, bringing to a finale a very enjoyable evening.

Thank you

The Streetsville Review thanks Mr. R. I. Langmaid, 52 Tannery Street, for his thoughtfulness in preserving a large number of old Reviews which he bundled for us before the Scouts arrived.

Trophy Winner

The Streetsville Figure Skating Club held their Family Night on Saturday, March 22 at the arena. Various skating demonstrations were presented by members of the club from the beginners right on up to the most advanced performers. The evening included a competition for the newly acquired Barbara Ann Scott trophy. Pat Breadman was selected as the winner of this trophy as well as the American Motors trophy for senior girls, being presented by A. Henry. AL BETTS Photo

Marilyn Brown, an English Teacher at Emery Junior High School was the guest speaker at the Lions Club regular meeting on Thursday, March 13 in the United Church. Miss Brown spoke on her activities among the Canadian Indians while George Bentley, Bob Estey and Lion President Bill Cove listen attentively. Miss Brown mentioned that the government spends most of the money for Indian aid on homes but should spend the major portion on schools.

One of the callers for the Irish version of the Streetsville Strutters square dance on Tuesday, March 18 was Norm Wilcox. The large crowd that turned out for the night had a very enjoyable time at Ray Underhill School. AL BETTS Photo

OAKVILLE - The Ontario Dairy Princess each year travels several thousand miles about the province as a goodwill ambassador for the Ontario dairy industry. The 1968-69 princess, Beth Stansell of Aylmer, will have driven her 1969 Meteor convertible almost 20,000 miles by the end of her reign in August. Miss Stansell and T. G. Daniels, general marketing manager, Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, are shown discussing an itinerary that takes her to all parts of Ontario.

Linda McLennan of Oshawa went for a ride with "Oscar" recently. She found that "Oscar" doesn't have much to say, but he does show General Motors experimental engineers a lot about driver comfort and car seat construction. "Oscar" is a two-dimensional checking dummy used by the engineering staff at GM of Canada in Oshawa. His precise angles make sure that seat construction provides the best in driver comfort and the ability to reach and handle the car's controls. "Oscar's" dimensions simulate the head, shoulder, back and leg angles of 90 per cent of North American drivers.

Taking the definition of Canada as a strip of land 100 miles wide and 3,000 miles long quite literally, Rohmer looked to a, area he called the "Near North" - and produced a scheme to build a "second tier" of cities and nonulation area in a crescent shaped corridor stretching across the nation's midsection from Labrador in the east in Inuvik in the west.

He then personally commissioned Acres Research and Planning Ltd., a Toronto based engineering firm of international renown, to produce a feasibility study. Acres are enthusiastic and have joined eleven universities in sponsoring a conference next August at which government and business leaders will be asked to help flesh out Rohmer's broad dream. The plans for the mid-Canada Development Corridor are unveiled in the March issue of McLean's magazine, which says that the probable first step in developing this second Canada is the construction of a 4,000-mile railroad through the area. This itself doesn't rule out the use of more futuristic forms of transport links, like Hovercraft, a old s noelines and cargo submarines to nly the Great Lakes. "It will take five to 10 years just to complete a detailed feasibility study, but by that time technological advances may make the project even more feasible than it is now," says Acres president Norman Simpson.

Mr. Rohmer himself is quoted by writer Alexander Ross as saying: "We're talking about an area where the climate is cold but acceptable, and where people can live and work and raise their kids. It's a simply fantastic opportunity."

"We have the chance to do for mid-Canada what Sir John A. Macdonald did for southern Canada: strring it together with a railroad build a chain of long-cycle cities that are fit to live in and add a second tier to the country."

A DIFFERENT KIND OF DEATH NOTICE

A very unusual death notice in Monday's Globe caught my eye. Packed with emotion and a clear message, it read in part "----- cause of death was cancer that started and then ravaged the system. If you're interested, fight cancer with a check-up and a cheque -- Hope that the next Nobel Prize for medicine is awarded to someone who finds the answer to why healthy body cells suddenly without apparent reason become abnormal and 'cancerous'."

THE CANADIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Canadian Red Cross Society National Blood Transfusion Service, which is perhaps the most important of its many services, grew out of the experience gained during World War II, and was established in Canada in 1947. This unique service is responsible for providing whole blood and blood products in Canadian hospitals from coast-to-coast. New surgical techniques create more uses for blood every day, and over one million voluntary donations will be needed to meet this year's hospital requirements. Why don't you become a regular donor. Your help is urgently needed.

March is Red Cross Month in Canada and it is time to salute those who contribute so much to the health and welfare of the people of Mississauga and Streetsville

IT'S RACE TIME ON THE CREDIT

The annual "wild" water races on the Credit River take place this week-end.

This year marks the 11th time these races for kayaks and canoes have been held on the turbulent Credit River by the Ontario Voyageurs Kayak Club.

The Downriver Race gets underway at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 29 from McCarthy's Mill south of Streetsville. The finish line will be in Erindale Park at Highway 5 - a distance of 4.5 miles.

The Slalom Race will be held March 30 starting at 10 a.m. from the Croatian Park on the Streetsville Road - this race (in two runs) is for a distance of 1/4 mile.

Local boys on Indiana tennis roster

Indiana University's tennis team looks for improvement this year after a fifth place finish in the Big Ten standings last year, with the return of six lettermen and a couple of promising sophomores.

Heading the list of Indiana returnees is senior Captain Dave Brown of Cooksville, who was the Hoosiers' top player over the last two years and the runner-up for the Big Ten singles crown a year ago.

Brown, recently named to the 1969 Canadian Davis Cup squad, has a two year record of 29-21, and should be a strong challenger for the Conference singles crown.

Also included on the tennis roster is Nigel Heis, of Port Credit.

Younger lads may now join Cadet Corps

South Peel's New Navy League Cadet Corps - The Navy League of Canada, Streetsville Branch - which already sponsors the Sea Cadet Corps in Streetsville will now organize a Navy League Cadet Corps for younger boys (ages 11 to 14). Any parents in South Peel area with boys interested in joining the new Corps should call for further information one of the following: L. G. Pelting, 824-3747 or L. L. Kingsford at 824-3277.

MISS PAT BREADMAN

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

The large crowd who came to the Streetsville Figure Skating Club's "Family Night" last Saturday all went home talking about one girl, Pat Breadman. In club competition a week ago she was awarded the American Motors trophy emblematic of winning the Senior Girls' Championship of the Club. On Saturday night Pat put on a beautiful display of free-style skating that won for her the Barbara Ann Scott Trophy, the highest award in the Streetsville Figure Skating Club. Pat's poise, skill and grace won the applause of every one present.

Many of those who watched her will be surprised to learn that she just turned thirteen. She has skated for four years, almost as long as the local club has been operating. Is in grade 7 at Russell Langmaid School and enjoys swimming. Pat also carried her winning ways over into the Lions Club "Rodeo" last summer and won a new bicycle.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE HOCKEY

Streetsville "Hot Shots" have made it to the International Hockey League finals. Last week they traded 7-3 wins with the Sutherland Construction team from Cooksville. The Sutherland win sent the series to the limit and set the stage for the Hot Shots' convincing win Sunday night before a full house at Streetsville arena. The Hot Shots now take on Lakeview Army-Navy-Air Force team for the league championship. The series will continue with games 9 p.m. Tuesdays and 8 p.m. Sundays until either team completes 8 points.

Doug Stringer got Streetsville off on the right foot in the final game by scoring when the game was just 20 seconds old. Within four minutes Sutherland scored twice assisted by Pete Hawke and Fred Hildich to go ahead 2-1. They held the lead until Joe Hore, who also had three assists in the game, scored an unassisted goal at the ten-minute mark. George Workman scored from Bob White to put the Hot Shots ahead 3-2 at the end of the first.

Sutherland tied it up briefly on a goal by Donnie Youngman but the Hot Shots went ahead with two more in the second stanza by White and Stringer. They added two more in the third period, both scored by Jon Clipperton to put the Streetsville team ahead 7-3 and into the final series.

In the earlier loss to Sutherland, the Hot Shots' goals were scored by White, Scott McKenzie and Ken Bond.

right. It's still 2 p.m. and it's still at Streetsville Arena hall and everyone is still invited - but we'll get the date straight this time - Sunday, March 30. Hope we didn't inconvenience anyone with that error last week.

LACROSSE REGISTRATION AND CLINICS

Very often sports seasons overlap. We get reports out of baseball spring training camps before the Stanley Cup finals. The Argos are hard at it long before baseball season is over and so on. But two sports which don't overlap in Streetsville are hockey and lacrosse. The reason is rather obvious. Same arena - some of the same coaches - many of the same boys - even some of the same equipment - just a different floor in the arena.

The Kinsmen didn't wait for the ice in the arena to melt before they got organized however. They have already been working behind the scenes in an effort to make this season bigger than ever. Kinman Bob Jones is heading up the operation this season but he has the solid support of the Whole Kinmen Club, many of whom have already volunteered for summer responsibilities in the lacrosse set-up.

REGISTRATION

From 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. this Saturday the Kinsmen will be at the HIGH SCHOOL to register boys wishing to play lacrosse. Registration fees are $3.00 for one boy; $5.00 for two boys in the same family and a total of $6.00 for three or more brothers. So if you have about six boys in your family from age 6 to 16 years, you had better get them all playing lacrosse. Where else could you get a bargain like this?

CLINIC

The first Lacrosse Clinic staged by the Kinsmen will also be in the Streetsville High School gym. On Wednesday April 2, boys 6 up to 11 (Tyke, Novice and Pee-wee) will receive instruction from 7 to 8 p.m. Then at 8 - 9 p.m. boys 12 - 16 (Bantam and Midget) will have their clinic. Running shoes are a MUST and bring a lacrosse stick if you own one, but no other equipment will be necessary for the clinic.

SOCCER SOCIAL

"A NIGHT PORTUGUESE STYLE". About this time of year whether we are from the sunny Azores or even if we were born right here in the north pole, we are ready for some balmy summer atmosphere. So if you want some real sunny, tropical atmosphere, come to the Lusitania Club's "Night Portuguese Style" this Saturday evening at Streetsville Arena hall. If you like Latin music and warm trade winds, you'll love The Atlantics. The Lusitania Club and its dynamo director Larry Sousa are active not just on the social front but have also been out on the soccer field already. Last Sunday they went to Oakville and beat the Arsenal 5-3. This Sunday at 3 p.m. you can see the first soccer game of the season when Lusitania meets the Port Credit Portuguese-Canadian Club at Streetsville's Soccer pitch at the park.

BASEBALL

We have activity going in lacrosse and soccer so we should give baseball a mention. Streetsville does not have a baseball organization definitely planning boys' baseball for the summer. However Mississauga runs inter-area leagues for pee-wee, bantam, midget and juvenile age boys. Streetsville has always been welcome to enter teams in any of the various age divisions. Whether or not Streetsville has boys' baseball teams this summer will depend largely on whether there is interest among men willing to be managers and coaches. If you feel you would like to sponsor, manage, coach or fill any other capacity in boys' baseball, please contact Ross Goheen 826-4642. Even if you want to be free for vacations and trips, any time you can give will be appreciated.

DEAFNESS NO HANDICAP FOR THESE HOCKEY PLAYERS

MILTON - Alvin George, 15, streaked across the blueline and fired the puck into the lower left corner of the net. He was about to raise his stick signalling the goal when he realized the goalie hadn't even tried to stop it. It was only then that he knew he had been offside crossing the blueline. Alvin couldn't hear the referee's whistle because he is deaf. But his deafness doesn't stop him from playing left wing for the Pigment Chemical bantams in the Milton Minor Hockey Association. Alvin is one of 20 students at the Ontario School for the Deaf who play in the league, skating alongside boys with normal hearing. But for Alvin and his friends from the school no cheers are heard from the crowd when they do score, they hear no linemate's call for a pass, nor a warning before they are crunched into the boards. Sometimes they wish they had eyes in the back of their heads to compensate for what their ears might have told them. For them it is a silent game. However their lack of hearing is no handicap to their ability on the ice nor the playing field as the school's athletic record attests. Their pride and joy is the shiny trophy they won as champions of the Central and Western Ontario Secondary School Association B track and field meet. In every race, they start a step behind their hearing counterparts. They have to wait until they see the puff of smoke from the starter's pistol before they break from the starting line. The Beavers, the school football team, won the division title last fall but lost the championship in a play-off game that went into overtime. Communication is not as great a problem in football because the plays follow pre-arranged patterns. Naturally no audible signals are called. The quarterback stands with his heel raised and starts the play by dropping it on the ground. Playing sports with students who have normal hearing is part of the school's total therapy program which is designed to enable students to make their way in a world of people who hear and talk.

Matthew Burnell, Etobicoke, faces off with Orangeville's Glen Murray while Referee Steve White drops the puck, at a hard fought game between the Mississauga Featherweight Hockey team and Orangeville. The game was played at Orangeville Arena on March 20 with Orangeville winning 2 - 1. V.E. SHARP Photo.

SPECTACULAR "WHITE WATER" RACE FILMED

Spectacular scenes of a wild "white water" race and a slalom on the Credit River will be seen on CBC-TV's This Land of Ours series, Saturday, March 29 at 6 p.m.

This is one of many scenes, captured by CBC cameras under director Gerry Richardson, of the Ontario Voyageurs Kayak Club making their increasingly popular sport.

Members of the club are drawn together by their zest for outdoor life, a love of fast water, unknown scenery and a certain degree of solitude. The "white water" race on the Credit River is an annual spring event. It's for professional kayakers only.

But on weekends these experts pack up their families (dogs and kids included) and spend many hours canoeing and kayaking on Ontario rivers. They have no club house, but meet on the waterways, and club activity is discussed at the campfire.

APPREHENSION OF STOLEN VEHICLE -

On Monday, March 24 at 3:55 p.m. a stolen car was observed by a Metro Toronto Police officer. This vehicle entered onto the Q.E. Way westbound and again was observed this time by Prov. Const. Hancher of OPP Port Credit. Const. Hancher with the assistance of several other OPP units and Police Units of the Town of Mississauga were able to apprehend the wanted vehicle. The apprehension took place after the wanted vehicle was involved in an accident with a notice vehicle on Highway 5 west of Highway 10.

Damage in the accident was estimated at $2000. to the notice vehicle and $2500. to the wanted vehicle. Hilary Decastro, age 16, of Weston was arrested and charged with Criminal Negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle. A passenger in the wanted vehicle Bernard Blackett also 16 years of Weston, received a broken arm, facial lacerations and undetermined internal injuries.

Decastro who was also charged with Auto Theft by Metro Toronto Police was remanded on both charges in Provincial Judge's Court, Toronto on March 24 for one week without bail.

LOCAL MAN INJURED On March 20 Thursday, at approximately 1:25 p.m. on Highway 401 westbound, a truck driven by Roland Roudeau, age 33 of Quebec, while changing lanes was struck in the rear by Gordon Hill, age 24 of Paisley Blvd. Cooksville. Hill received facial lacerations and was treated at Peel Memorial Hospital in Brampton.

Damage was estimated at $1700.00 by Prov. Const. Wm. Manning of OPP Port Credit Detachment. Roudeau was charged with Careless Driving.

STREETSVILLE STRUTTERS HOST BIG-3 CLUB DANCE

Members of the Streetsville Strutters Modern Square Dance Club entertained guests from the Big-3-Club at the Ray Underhill School on Tuesday, March 18. They hosted the Pairs 'n' Squares from Acton and the Royal City Squares from Guelph. Norm Wilcox, Barry Redwood and Don Sherlock, dressed in green top hats and green and white aproned vests, kept the dancers active. The auditorium was suitably decorated for this St. Patrick's Day Event. Refreshments were served to a full house, and it was wonderful seeing dancers from metro and suburbs attending.

Music competition

Miss Masaro first played a test piece "Suite for Accordion" by Hovhannesian, and her competition number was "Invention in A" (No. 9) an arrangement by Torbjorn Lundquist.

JOY CLUB NEWS

BY Eleanor S. Blake

BY Eleanor S. Blake

THE CREDIT VALLEY NEIGHBOURS, says reporter Helen Thomson, welcomed three new members to their midst. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Slater and Mrs. Jaffrey will enjoy their new association with the Club. An enjoyable evening of euchre and bridge, coupled with the excitement of a "Touch and Take" Table rounded out the evening's entertainment. Preliminary discussions took place regarding a spring bazaar.

MALTON - Illness seemed to take over the Malton meeting, and attendance was small, but the group nevertheless enjoyed their get-together. Sympathy was expressed to Mrs. Muckart in the loss of her sister who was due to arrive for a few months' stay this summer, from Scotland. The members were pleased to hear that Mrs. O'Brien is recuperating from her eye operation.

COOKSVILLE - The Four Corners Square Dance Club visited with the Cooksville Seniors and their guests from Lakeview and Applewood Clubs at their recent meeting and a good time was had by all. The Seniors welcomed Mr. John Reynolds, a new member, to their midst. The next meeting will be in the Church Parlours and the Executive are meeting to plan summer activities and field trips.

GUILD - Some one hundred and fifty participants gathered last Thursday evening at Allan A. Martin Senior Public School, to enjoy the second bridge, euchre, whist and cribbage party held by the Mississauga Seniors' Guild. Prizes were awarded to the various winners and light refreshments served by Mrs. Bassant and her committee from Credit Valley, Lorne Park and Cooksville.

Hyl Chappell Announces Seniors Apartments

Hylard Chappell, M.P. Peel announced today that the Federal Government will provide a loan in the amount of $1,700,416.00 for the construction of an eleven storey apartment building containing 98 one-bedroom units at Port Credit for Senior Citizens.

The loan, which is being made to the Ontario Housing Corp. is for a term of 50 years with interest at 6 7/8% and covers 90% of the cost of construction. The remaining 10% will be provided by the Province of Ontario for Ontario Housing Corporation.

The Federal Government will bear one-half of any operating losses, the other half will be met by Ontario Housing Corporation who will also be responsible for construction and administration of the project.

HOW ABOUT THAT !

JUDO-FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

SAFETY

Motorists! If, for any reason, you decide to pass the car ahead when you're not quite sure you can do it, remember - you're risking human life. Never pass other vehicles when climbing hills, on curves, when approaching bridges, railway crossings, or intersections. In other words, never attempt to pass another vehicle unless you're absolutely sure you can DO IT SAFELY. For a safe passing rule, remember IF IN DOUBT, DON'T.

More and more families are joining in the Judo lessons offered at Huron Park Recreation Centre. Mr. Scott Johnston, instructor, marvels at the way the girls and women are participating in the sport. Mothers, Dads, Brothers and Sisters are all joining.

Anyone can learn Judo and benefit from it. Shy children can be helped to develop more self confidence. Aggressive children may learn to control their emotions more readily. Thin boys build up muscles and fat boys trim down. The whole family gets a good physical work out.

Participants of the Mississauga Buokai Judo Club work at their own level, matched with a partner of equal height and weight. Beginners learn how to fall properly in their first lessons. Once that has been mastered they will learn various Judo holds, one at a time, gradually building up to more difficult ones. Registrations are now being accepted for the Spring series of lessons offered on Thursday evenings or Saturday afternoons. For further information please phone 279-8200.

WILL RAISE FUNDS FOR FIRST AID UNIT

Cadets of West Toronto Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade are conducting a Walkathon to raise funds for a Mobile First Aid Unit which they can operate as a First Aid Post on public duties.

The 25 mile walk will take place on Saturday, April 19 at 9 a.m., starting from St. John headquarters at 46 Wellesley St. East, and finishing at the Ford Motor Co. plant in Oakville.

The cadets hope to raise $3,000.00 and their objective is to buy a small van with the proceeds from the walk.

With the help of their parents, they plan to convert the interior of the van into a Mobile First Aid unit by building in cupboards for blankets and First Aid supplies, a treatment table and space for a stretcher.

Anyone wishing to sponsor a Cadet can do so by calling Mr. Patey, Divisional Superintendent at 536-6950 any day after 5 p.m.

The Review makes a hit at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis

Allan Martin, son of Mrs. Dorothy Martin of Streetsville, is stationed at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis in Nova Scotia. Every week he receives The Review and gets caught up on the news from his home town. Not only does he enjoy The Review but his friends do too as noted in the accompanying letter, signed by fellow members of the Cornwallis.

NEW FORMAT FOR SP-HEAR

There will be a brand new look to SP-HEAR, the house organ of the South Peel Hospital Auxiliary, when it is processed for mailing to members next month.

Mrs. D. G. Flood, editor, is enthusiastic about the revised scope of subject material, as suggested by the Canadian Association of Hospital Auxiliaries. Announcements of special and new services, as well as informative pieces about hospital equipment, improved techniques of patient care, and interviews, will be included to broaden knowledge and inform volunteers about the hospital organization as a whole.

Six weeks is allowed for the mechanics of fact-finding, writing, revising (often many times), and publishing SP-HEAR, and the bi-annual release usually requires a total of about 120 hours. Any volunteer who has helped "to put the baby

ADDRESS

The Honourable W. Ross Macdonald, Ontario's Lieutenant-Governor, will be the special Guest of Honour when the 48th Highlanders of Canada present their Military Tattoo to launch the 1969 fund raising campaign of the Cancer Society at Maple Leaf Garden on Friday evening, March 28.

The Lieutenant-Governor heads a distinguished guest list which will include General J. V. Allard, C.D., DSO, ED, 'CD, Chief of Canada's Defence Forces, and a number of Federal and Provincial Cabinet Ministers as well as Civic dignitaries. Also on hand will be the Cancer Society's "Miss Hope" for 1969, Miss Ruth Anne Campbell of Belleville and Trenton, a third year student at St. Joseph's Hospital

School of Nursing, Toronto, who will be introduced to the audience to open the second half of the evening's program. Proceeds from the Tattoo, the first ever undertaken by an individual Canadian military unit, either Regular or Reserve Force, will go to the Cancer Society. The evening's program will feature all the traditional ceremony and colour associated with one of Canada's oldest and most decorated military units, with the 48th's famous Pipes and Drums and Military Band leading the Highlanders in a Regimental Marchpast — a guard mounting ceremony — and portions of the rarely performed Trooping of the Colour. In addition, there will be exciting combat demonstrations and a mortar race in which the audience will be able to cheer on their team — as well as a display by the highly regarded gymnastic team from the Royal Military College of Canada at Kingston — and precision drill in rifle calisthenics by a special squad from the St. Andrew's College Cadet Corps, which has been affiliated with the 48th Highlanders of Canada since 1904. Tickets for Friday, the regular Gardens March 28 Tattoo (there $3.00 for reds and will be only one per- blues; $2.00 for greens; formance) are avail- and $1.00 for greys. able at Maple Leaf Proceeds are for the Gardens and through all Cancer Society.

FORMER RESIDENT OF STREETSVILLE DIES

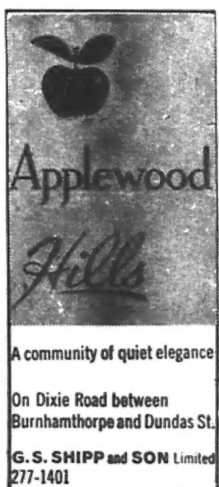

F.P. THOMAS

Frederick Thomas, who served the Streetsville Separate School Board for over 8 years, and recently as an elected member of the Dufferin-Peel Roman Catholic Separate School Board, died Wednesday, March 19, 1969, at South Peel Hospital after a short illness. He was 56 years of age.

To those who had worked with the late Mr. Thomas in Streetsville, Mr. Thomas was a man with a very practical business mind. "We relied on him a great deal," remembers Art Steffler, a former School Board colleague. "Even after the late Mr. Thomas moved to Cooksville, some two years ago, the Streetsville Separate School Board retained him as secretary-treasurer".

The funeral service took place at St. Joseph's in Streetsville and Interim at St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Mr. Thomas is survived by his wife, Winifred; two sons, Christopher and Gerald and a daughter, Patricia.
